1580*Tosser*@ Stag on the River, Eashing*05/08/2014

This is a special haunt, hidden away 4 miles beyond Guildford, in the little village of Eashing, where we have visited occasionally every four years over the last twenty. Tosser got so carried away creating this magnificent Run, that we never saw him at the off, and the delight was soon ours ! A Physically tough run, up and up the hillside, through the forest, and ferns but what a beautiful hidden location. A river runs through was certainly the motto.

We could hear church bells, half way round, and Boo Boo, 14 year old son of Yogi Bare, piped up with, 'This is my route into Godalming, Dad !' and blow me down, he was right !! We went past St.Peter & St Paul church, then down alleys and Godalming BR station, before disappearing back into the woods from whence we came, with tired legs, and adrenalin pumping. Mother Brown, a young gentleman of healthy years roared round, must have had at least 3 Weetabix This morning ! We came back somehow, seemingly from nowhere, to along the riverbank, the bridge and soon the pub was in view. Bliss, that first pint, and chippies, thank you Tosser, your public pays homage again.....back sooner next time !

1581*Tequil'Over*@ The Royal Oak, Bookham*12/08/2014

A great pack of runners turned up for this lush parkland run, through The Norbury Park estate, which was the first 'green' area bought by Surrey County Council in 1930. Now designated an area of outstanding natural beauty, in The Surrey Hills,.... bit like some of our runners really! Cathy and Worzel were leading the pack, until they got to a river that our good hare decided, everyone should cross, but no they and Dingaling ran off to the bridge and ran over that, and back on the other side to follow the trail. Only problem was, poor Dingaling lost them at the graveyard, and was never to be seen again. Cricket pitches were passed, Leatherhead Leisure Centre, then up the Guildford Road to the top and back down the drain filled grasses on the other side, in pitch black, with his torch, and Dingaling was treated to a round of applause in the dark. His dear Weybridge Hashers had waited for the poor lost soul. That's what you get when you run with .....Weybridge Hash.....pure class.... Honourable Horn...Piercy had laid a cracking run, with horn blasting us away, heralding an adventure! Come and join us.

Hash House Harriers Police

Suspect: Ding-a-LingCrime: Run De Ja VuWitnesses:

Wasser: Conspicuous in his absence on the run, but offered his complimentary opinion as always.

George: Stayed for chips but had to leave as his permission slip had expired.

Malcolm: Came back from his holiday to pick up the funds for the next one.

Bar Manageress: Questionable people skills, even Naked Chef managed to get on the wrong side of the bar / manageress.

Evidence:

The amazing views from the peak of Richmond Park.

Great chips in the pub afterwards

An enjoyable marathon of a run that had its challenges.

Our evening started in very sombre mood, as we held a respectful 2 minute silence to commemorate our dear friend Sarah (Tent Tester) Slann who died last Thursday. She has been running with us for the last 22 years, until the last eighteen months or so and will be much missed, a very cheery soul, we were fortunate to know. Our thoughts and very best wishes go out to her Family with much love from all of us. Then we were ushered up into the hills to follow our customary flour, well laid by George ! Welcome visitors tonight were Alison ( Knickers) and her friend Rhonda from Sydney and great to see Giles back running, and many other regulars, such as Cathy (All Up Front ) good to see you ! We were taken for a woodland fest, up, up and around the hillsides, and slippy slidy down the other, a few found themselves nearly bottom sliding. The pub was most welcoming, with 6 bowls of chips to warm our appetites, and beer flowed quickly down. This is a 16th century Ale House, in the hamlet of Sutton Abinger. The famous actress Prunella Scales, of Fawltly Towers fame, was born here in 1932. We will be back to this beautiful village again, as always

We have been here before, and it was good then, so here goes. Off into the woods, we trotted, with new visitor Saba from Ethiopia but now a local resident, and Tracy back with us again, welcome to you both! Plus our good favourites Linda & Mark were back from their two week hols near Perpignon in France, of course, they looked suitably refreshed, and tanned. Not surprisingly, we saw a lot of horses tonight, either galloping along with us, on the other side of the fence, or quite nearby, they like to run with you. The Molesey Mauler was with us, what a man, he only decided to join us at 7.30pm, so he was miles away from when we started, but talking to our Hare Simon, he managed to catch up in the dark, well done indeed ! Pig Pen Matt, was his usual smiley self, keeping people happy, and Claire was here again with her son Dan, very good to see them too. Worzel has now become a regular, good ! Back in the cricket club bar, we were kindly looked after by the manager, and kind Simon had many big bags of chips delivered from the local Chinese, delicious.....thankyou Si for your kindness. Dishy Dave was here, and Wasser, enjoying the comfort of local furniture to rest with his pint. A night to savour for All. Our Hare is a natural.

Sarah "Tent Tester" Slann 23 July 1965 to 21 August 2014

As many of you know, sadly Sarah (Tent Tester) Slann died late last month. Sarah joined Webridge Hash in 1992. She was an ex hockey player (as have been many of our star harriettes) and a good runner but most of all she was friendly, popular and well liked. She was bubbly, good fun and will be sadly missed by many. A ray of sunshine has left our lives.
