1686Tight Git*@ The Sportsman, Tadworth*02/08/2016

Nothing could prepare you for what was to follow. A great area to run through with a large public golf course for us to career through, we were on it ! Visitors tonight were Possibly Possum, a Kiwi lady and her daughter Lindsay, great to see you both, and also Sir Raymond, who has not run with us for about 4 years !!! He remembers getting his Medic kit out to tend Dingaling's sprained ankle, what a memory he has! Very good to see you, also Jiggy Jiggy from Old Coulsdon, and how can you forget him...Jumping Jack Flash....Emlyn. The joint GM of said local Hash pack, known as Made to Come. Great to see your happy face amongst us all again ! Our run roared off across Banstead Common, and even out to Gatton Park, near Reigate, then we traversed the bridges twice over the M25 to get home, and Pig Pen, Kung Foo Panda and Simon were whizzing along. As the dark descended upon us , us with few torches...it is Summer for God sakes.....down came the Fog.....we could barely see 10 yards in front of us, in early August ! Our Hare, Tight Git was profuse with apologies, and puzzlement. Bless him ! Never seen anything like it, said some. The great and the good were in this tonight, Fish & Chips, Worzel, Mother Brown, Tosser, and Great Bear too. Spanish Mistress & Sodden Assets, were back, White Van man no longer. It was a spooky night, reminds one of the movie...The Fog by John Carpenter.....excellent fayre. Don't miss next week, we are all off to Twickenham, for your enjoyment. On On . x

1687Dingaling*@ The White Swan, Twickenham*09/08/2016

We met by the river in Twickenham. After a game of musical cars, to avoid the residents' parking, we were off. We ran past the lovely Marble Hill House, Ding-a-ling informed me it was the home of the mistress of King George II. Through Marble Hill Park, along to Richmond Bridge. Spanish Mistress was tricked into checking the wrong way expecting the run to go to Crane River. Eventually we wound our way back to the pub where Ardon Provocateur was waiting with his massive cucumber. Mother Brown couldn't wait to get his hands on it. Chips all round...delicious! A well-marked trail with all checks marked through, good for the walkers and slower runners. Visitors this week were Linda & Gabriel along with Little Red Shitting Hood who told an amusing story of how he received his name. I won't go into details but suffice to say the name was well chosen.

1688TopMan & Naked Chef*@ The Cock Inn, Headley*16/08/2016

Well, a beautiful spot, high up on the hillside to run in, as we reach into August, slightly cooler now. We ran off into the countryside, down every footpath, and round every farmer's field. Visitor's tonight were the joint GM's of Old Coulsdon Hash, Legolas aka Karen, and also Made 2 Come aka Emlyn, great to see you both, yet again, always a pleasure. Molesey Matt smiled into town too, marvellous. As the night darkened quickly towards the end, a lot of flashing was going on, a vision in Pink, or er...Pink Panther Tracy and Canary yellow Katie, had to put up with both Kebab and Dingaling flashing at them. I don't think they minded one bit, as George Clooney is away at the moment! Doner, aka Ruth was in town, and Wasser back from his Florida mansion again. Our joint Hares, Top Man & Naked Chef, treated us to the delightful views across Headley Heath, whose original church was built way back in 1270, and the famous Stane Street, dates right back to Roman occupation here ! Of course, high up, and a keen vantage point. A display of mint classic Austin Healey cars from 1960 – 1965 just happened to be parked in the car park for our appreciative viewers. The pub has become another Gastro pub, but a nice high standard has been set, and we sampled a few of the beverages on offer. Food, another time maybe. An evening to saviour, if you missed it.....On On !

Kebab

@ The Douglas Haig, Effingham

23/08/2016

Starting from this nicely situated pub/Hotel offering 7 rooms to stay in, if you were tired.

A steamy night was in store for us, suspicions were rife, as our Hare seemed strangelyknackered, which suggested a long run, Ding a Ling was told a 16 miler was on, and all went quiet! We trolleyed off and were given some cracking views, as we kept on going uphill, seemingly around the whole bloody perimeter of Polesden Lacey, a beautiful Edwardian house, set in some sumptuous grounds, with huge sweeping valleys, into the distance. Darkness swept in, while we were running through a canopy of trees, and then a treat! We turned back on ourselves, and and ran the straight all the way back, from the Open Air Theatre, along past beautiful Yew trees, 25 foot high, called The Long Walk, with super views down the valley. Cracking. We managed to run 7 miles with all the checking we did. No wonder our kind Hare, Kebab had lost his mustard, just a Half Marathon for him. Ding a Ling will arrange some dancing Girls for him. Tasty chips outside the pub, much chatting. Mother Brown, Fish & Chips, Pig Pen, even Tracy was back, in her flash new motor, only a black shiny Mini, nice model, if only temporary ! You know I didn't see Mrs Greville serving those cream teas, and champagne as I had hoped! How marvellous of her, donating all of the 1400 acre splendour to The National Trust in 1942 and all her jewellery, worth millions now, was given to The Queen Mother, and large sums of money to all her 60 servants. How kind. Originally she left Polesden Lacey in the 1930's will to The Duke and Duchess of York, later to become George V1 & Queen Elizabeth, so that had to be changed!! Even Princess Margaret, only a teenager then, received a legacy of £20,000, equivalent to 3 Million today. Big pocket money eh? We mixed in good company tonight, a super trail, much appreciated, from our goodly host Alan

Kung Foo Panda

@ Brewery Inn, Ashtead

30/08/2016

With a the delightful smell of fish and chips cooking, as we left the car park we wondered if this was in fact, a Jamie Oliver healthy eating run, to keep us away from such temptations ! Enough.....we rocked off down the road, disappearing fast into rooty undergrowth where to be fair we spent most of the night ! Kung Foo Panda was ably assisted by his giant son, Stuart, who set the run for him, with just an outstretched arm across the forest floor, laying flour everywhere.....clever, and saves time too ! Lots of top knobs were here, Tosser, Great Bear, Mother Brown, Pig Pen, Hash Cash Malcolm & son Chipolata, tanned as usual. Fish & Chips ..Anna was back again, almost a regular in 2016. Doner...aka Ruth was here, telling Dingaling how to bake a New York vanilla cheesecakedelicious ! We really did explore most of Ashted Common, Spanish Mistress smartly pointing out, that 3 years ago, on Agent Provocateur's run in the Winter, we could hardly stand up in the slushy mud, or even find our way out of the woods at all ! So tonight really was a piece of cake.....mmmmm. No scandal to report sadly, certain women were not here, and those that were.....so polite tonight. Pub supplied us with huge bowls of chips, courtesy of Hares, THANKYOU !! Ashted Common has over 2,000 old Oak trees, and the gnarled giant one, at least 300 years old, near the lake is the famous.....Wishing Tree.....so come back in daylight for your special dreams ! The Roman villa on Ashted Common was excavated in 1924 – 1929, and was found to be a rare type of corridor villa with bathhouse, and site for making tiles. Eat your heart out....Topps Tiles ! Another jolly fine gathering of chatty folk running all the way to the pub !

Sausage & Chipolatas

@ The Station Hotel, West Byfleet

06/09/2016

Eager anticipation in the car park, as we parked all over the railway station car spaces.

Our keen Hare Chipolata and his understudy, Papa Sausage looked bright eyed and bushy tailed, what did they have in store for us ? Well, romping off into the residential streets, we had a nice easy flat run, as it is round here, no hilly terrain to play with, but good clever checks, and a lot of flour. Great to see Master Bates back with us, he of the dodgy knee, healing now plus Jo, our young Yorkshire lass, showing us how we used to run every week ! Back from her, hilly Isle of Skye half marathon a while ago, which sounded quite tough. Tosser was ahead at every check ?? Time traveller maybe. Kebab was running well, and Great Bear Pig Pen and Naked Chef were racing along. A good five miler was had by all, with beer and chips to come ! Andrew, told us fabulous stories of bomb disposal work, not easy to pick up, these days ! Once into the large one room pub, we seemed to get a party started, all on our own, so much so that we did not leave till almost closing time, so much gossiping, Star Trek or Star Wars ? That is the question.....Hare's whole Family turned up, Mum & daughter Becs, great to see you both again ! Next was, 12inch Pizza across the road for Jo, or not ? Dingaling was considering the same. Our night was complete, because we were together ! Oy Oy !

While WH3 was in West Byfleet the OnSec was up North with Harrogate H3;
