Run	:	2033	27 th February 2024 8pm
Hare	:	Wurzel
Start	:	The Prince of Wales, 48 West End Lane, KT10 8LA
Run Report 2033...Prince of Wales...WEST END, ESHER...27.2.2024

This now beautifully refurbished Greene King Pub restaurant was our treat tonight, courtesy of Wurzel, reputation precedes etc. He started with a loop through the sloshy fields, and football pitches, and back to the pub, then up the hill, and staying on the rise, before dipping down into the woods of Esher Commons. Colin tricked us at every turn, we rarely got a check right ! A very well crafted run, even Naked Chef, Top Man and Dingaling lost their bearings, and they know the area very well ! This public house was built originally in 1892, on land that was a coal yard and a brewery, even a Pigeon Club was here until the 1980's in the stables.

Very Happy Birthday to Giles, who kindly brought a delicious chocolate cake for all to gorge on ! He must be nearly 50, you know ? Henry joined us tonight, and Meriel & Matt, and all the Wise Men were in the pub. Kebab did not mention fast food this week !

You would definitely come to this sumptuous Restaurant area inside for a special Birthday or Anniversary, beautifully lit everywhere ! Friendly staff Lucy and John met us with a smile, all evening.

This residential area is steeped in history, The Quaker writers, the Howitts lived here 1836-1839, and were visited by Charles Dickens, and Florence Nightingale owned 'The Orchard', and a young highwayman Jerry Abershaw owned The Chequers, he robbed the mail coaches in Surrey, very courteously, of course ! The last French Royal Family lived at Claremont, to escape Paris, for safety abroad. Also, Bill Bedford the world famous Harrier test pilot, lived here, he pioneered the RAF Harrier Jump Jet, in service from 1969 – 2010. Landing vertically on an aircraft carrier, at sea for the first time back in 1963 !! He flew 153 different aircraft during his career, and was incredibly brave !

Back to now, we had another cracking night, Malcolm is off on yet another holiday, this time to Malaysia, enjoy sir ! Next week, Kung Foo Panda will welcome You All ! Come and join us in Ripley, The Seven Stars. GU23 6DL. On On !

Run	:	2034	5 th March 2024 8pm
Hare		Kung Foo Panda	RIPLEY/WOKING

Start		The Seven Stars, Newark Lane, GU23 6DL

Run Report 2034...The Seven Stars...RIPLEY...5.3.2024

On a dark wintry star laden night sky, this nice country pub on a main road between Ripley and Woking was good to visit once again, has been some years since we were last here. We had an hours running to do first. Our Hare, Neil aka Kung Foo Panda told us it was going to be muddy, and very shiggy it was too ! A great 7K trail by him, kindly shepherding us along the banks of the Wey Navigation and Fish Pass Project. He had to set this THREE times tonight, being fearful the rain would wash away the route for us!! So buy him a drink over the next few weeks eh! We were back by 9pm, and our Visitors tonight were Lady Chatterley aka Mel and her husband Simon, aka Three and Four Pence! They are normally away in Greece or Crete, but joined us tonight, so great to see you both once again! The Pub was excellent, friendly staff, a young smiley guy Dan and a happy lady who kindly took our photos, and we were given delicious chips to gorge on, thankyou Neil ! Louise, Meriel, Megabit, Kebab, Giles, were all here, and Great Bear Rupert also, now recovered from the nasty flu, thank goodness ! Briain and Len joined us in the pub, good company as ever. Would be nice to come back and try some food here. People all setting off on their Spring 2024 holidays, Neil to Spain next week, Wurzel is going skiing, Dingaling off to Thailand, it is 32 degrees there now !! We had a nice time in the pub. Our Scribe enthusiastically said 'See You All in April ! ' and someone piped up... 'Is that a threat ?' Wowsers, is that meant to be funny ? Sad, eh, and rather upsetting too.

Moving on swiftly, We all send our love to the Archer Family, dear Calamity Jane's Funeral was this very morning, thankyou for your fabulous friendship these past 25 years ! XX Our running club is built on that, many of us have been here all that time and a few, a lot more, we welcome ALL visitors who are good enough to find us on Facebook or are recommended to join us. You will be guaranteed a genuine warm welcome ! Where was Henry tonight ? Working I expect.

Next week, off to The Queen Victoria in Station Row, Shalford. GU4 8BY. Pig Pen Matt will set you All a cracker, don't miss it ! Yours Truly signing off, have fun ! On On.

Run report 2035

I had a sudden epiphany while staring blankly into space at work. Shit, I've forgotten to submit the run report for last week. So now I am frantically trying to recall what actually happened before I get my ear bent this evening! So a small, but perfectly formed pack turned up. Some of the usual suspects were missing. Some gallivanting around the globe representing WH3 in Spain and Thailand. Some off with "floaters and flashing in the eye" and others with various piss poor excuses for not turning up. So off we set. It was a dry evening but it had rained (heavily) all day so was somewhat damp under foot but was a good mixture of on and off road (follow me on Garmin for an exact route). Which allowed just enough time for your feet to warm up before traversing another quagmire. Still a worthwhile and decently laid 7.5km outing by PigPen to blow away the cobwebs. Back in the pub there was scintillating discussions around the ownership of various financial institutes, beer and crisps (can certainly recommend the unusual paring of jalapeno and dill). Off to Thames Ditton this evening.

LONG DITTON

Start : The Plough and Harrow, 64 Ditton Hill , KT6 5JD

Run report #2036 The Plough and Harrow, Long Ditton

As we hoofed it down the three oh nine,
did we think the run would start on time,
or the plough and harrow on the new pub sign,
or just check one and that first incline,
As we hoofed it down the three oh nine,
As we hoofed it down the three oh nine,
did we think of the check where the roads align,
or how the fox and Simon's legs entwine,
or the romantic Love lane full of mud and slime,
As we hoofed it down the three oh nine,
As we hoofed it down the three oh nine,
did we think of the Hare's cunning route design,
or how the regular checks the path assign,
or Hinchley Wood, of much malign,
As we hoofed it down the three oh nine
As we hoofed it down the three oh nine,
did we think of how the roads combine,
or the hockey games, with girls divine,
or that cricket pitch of muddy brine,
As we hoofed it down the three oh nine
As we hoofed it down the three oh nine,
did we think of beer, and chips so fine,
or tales of glory on which to dine,
or of another of Trevor's routes sublime,
As we hoofed it down the three oh nine

Hash Report

Run #2037, 26th March 2024, The Cricketers on The Green, Pirbright, Hare – Pussyeeye.

As the hardy few left the comfort of their homes, what was going through their heads? Why am I venturing out on a dark stormy night like this? A good question! Was it the thrill of it? Probably not. But despite the rain, those who ventured out were in for a smashing, splashy run around the great surrounding countryside of Pirbright.

Apparently at the time of laying the trail, the footpaths and tracks were relatively dry with only a few being soggy in places. But then the rain came again. As the heavy rain continued to fall and grew more intense, the already sodden ground could cope no more!

The paths and ditches filled up and overflowed, the gates were under water and in places there was no other option but to wade through the newly formed streams and ponds.

Pussyeeye laid an enjoyable and clever route, using all the foot paths and alley ways on offer, taking us through woods, across the heath land, along quiet country roads, past the famous Brooklands cemetery towards Sheets Heath and weaving our way in a circular fashion around Pirbright to the west of the village, and back to the comfort of a cosy pub for chips and beers.

Snorkels and waders were more appropriate attire as the rain never stopped!

Well done to the hare for running it twice!, and well done to the hardy group of hashers, consisting of Kung Foo Panda, Great Bear, Tight Git, Top Man, Naked Chef, Lady Chatterley, and Pig Pen, who all managed to splash their way round. Not forgetting those Hashers, Len, Alan, and Briain who were sensible enough to settle themselves down to a few beers and chips without enduring the awful weather.
