1585 Chipolata @ The New Inn, Send 09/09/2014

A special occasion this run, created by a virgin Hare, young Chipolata, eighteen years and keen to set his first trail, we like that ! Son of Sausage of course, who now gets tempted by the devil called food, we are with you too ! So, nearly thirty runners up and at it tonight, they must be on some sort of secret health craze eh ? There's Doner, aka Ruth she's just back from doing Iron Man,careful.....and she spent 6hours 58mins on that....eh....erm...15 minutes less than when she last took him on. He must be a sturdy fellow !! Alan aka Kebab, also recently finished a Triathlon, in one piece, hurrah to You ! Visitors tonight, were Keisuke, very nice friendly fellow, knows Chipolata. Also, Kerry, from Lego land fame, back with her good mate Tracy, lets see more of you both ? We aim to please here at Weybridge Hash, no one goes home without a good laugh and a pint. The run.....well I think it was well thought out, spread all over the place, just the one loop that we missed, but were brought back, otherwise, we think.....'The Boy done good' ! Another great night was had by All. On On.

1586 Doner @ The Jolly Farmer, Bramley 16/09/2014

A surprisingly large turn out to this run, set in a quaint 'Miss Marple' style English village bearing in mind it is the other side of Guildford, some 25 miles from our home patch. Our cars filled the smallish car park, and off we went, into the greenery, torches at the ready. Visitors tonight were Caboose from Twyford in Berkshire, coming back for a third time to join us. Also, smiley 'Hanging about' from East Grinstead Hash I think, he joins us whenever he can, WELCOME to you both ! Our Hare 'Doner' aka Ruth, threatened us with8 Mile....but Grammy award winning rapper Eminem did not turn up for this one ! well, one day, maybe, if Rihanna flies in from Barbados to sing ! For the record, the run was just under 5 miles, ...phew. We climbed up and down every hillside, a trail to enjoy for sure, even in the dark, now we are getting used to it, as Summer has passed. Clumps of dark forest, unwound into a footpath to somewhere. A sprint down the high street, back to the pub, where the beams inside were festooned with hares, Ferrets, birds, and lots of Greek style wine baskets, and even the odd sword too. Chips were gobbled down fast, and the numbers are rising for our Barn Dance at Laleham Golf Club this Saturday night, Festivities start at 7.30pm, 27 September, be there !

1587 Tight Git @ The William Bourne, Chessington 23/09/2014

We have run from this pub, quite a few years back, and boy has it changed I'll tell you later. A bulging car park, of eager beer drinkers.....I mean runners, all kitted out with Autumn clothing, and flashy torches, all looking for some exercise. The back streets of Chessington were our playground tonight, but no visit to Chessington World of Adventures for a quick Vampire ride ! Lots of playing fields round here, and many footpaths, well chosen by our Hare tonight. Visitors tonight were I- Feel Tower all the way from New York, and Made to Come, from Carshalton, who has run with us before, and Belinda back for this one too! Smiling Dave, back for his supreme fitness course as well. So, into the pub, where publican Timmy, was very welcoming, bowls of chips soon arriving, to gorge on with our pints, and the pub seemed transformed from it's 'bovver boy past', when it normally kicked off INSIDE the pub ! We even had a football match tonight, with a 14 – 13penalty shoot out...Middlesborough v Liverpool ! Another great night with Weybridge Hash, thanks Tight Git !

1588 The Great Bear @ The George, Staines 30/09/2014

Interesting start here tonight, we are all supposed to go to the open rooftop of the Staines multi storey car park, before the start, very James Bond style....! Another full troop of runners 2night, Dishy Dave, Giles, Pig Pen, Louise, Top Man, Butt Plug, Kung Foo Panda, Sausage, the list goes on. We raced off along the river Thames footpath, and on, and on..... oh we then reached the Bell Weir, and eventually veered left inland at last ! Bungalows and boats aplenty. Eventually we ran past the Runnymede Hotel, across into the fields and then into Egham town centre, before cleverly coming back on the in trail the other side of Staines bridge. Good stuff Great Bear, appreciated ! The pub, well, huge and welcome, we were in there till gone 10.30pm All sorts of great value beers in The George !

Final Postscript.

Our Barn Dance on Sat 27 Sept was a great success, but where was our Grand Master Trevor ? Well.....he was hanging gayly from the mast of a Tall Ship off the coast of France, getting calloused hands, and drinking beer and rum..... What.....the cheeky bugger !

Sausage

@ The Saddlers Arms, Send Marsh

07/10/2014

Was it a cold sausage or a sausage in the cold, Was the saddlers seen or was the saddlers saw, Was it the hearty few or, in the end, the hearty phew ! A classic Send loop hoofed the pack over to Ripley farmshop, before turning back through Send Marsh and up to Burnt Common. Then a few back passages (snigger) before heading up the Giraffes (snigger snigger) onto Woodhill. A hefty left hand swing led the pack back down past the fiddling field and onto Tannery lane before picking up the paths towards Danesfield allotments and the short sprint in. It must be time to plant the next cash-cow crop as the final fields had been liberally sprinkled with cow poo, although Tracey failed to notice the smell ! so the pack skidded along knee deep in slurry. Mark thought he was lost but was actually just too lazy to run in. At least that is the story going round. The virgin hounds are unlikely to be seen again after cow shit shoes. I bet that does not go on their Facebook ! Fine beer and chips were served, although Sausage was seen asking for a receipt. Chipolata couldn't be bothered doing the same run (almost) twice in a month, but the rest of us thought it was great !
