1657*Doner*@ The Perseverance, Wraysbury*12/01/2016

A pretty little village , on the other side, towards Heathrow airport. Surrounded by many lakes, and some National Trust land to boot. Our adventure nearly did not start, as we missed the off, which came back and down the alley. It was a very fishy run, as you felt like either you jump in and swim, crazy idea I know, or you should be lakeside, and fishing. Anyway we ploughed on through the endless muddy footpaths, between the water, and poor Kebab fell over and the rest of us nearly did. Visitors tonight, Dan & Sophie & Thea, and Chris from Shepperton, great to see you All out in the cold, getting fit. Our Hare Doner aka Ruth....gave us a great trail which winded it's ways through history. You were all privileged to run past The Ankerwycke Yew, very famous which is at least 1400 years OLD, possibly 2500 years old !!..... and is next to the ruins of a 12th century Benedictine nunnery, St.Mary's Priory. This is also the place where Henry the Eighth met Anne Boleyn in 1530. So, take off your hats and bow now! King John also signed the Magna Carta on the opposite banks at Runnymede, and then was brought to this nunnery. Our lovely warm public house, The Perseverance was a treat! Poor Stuart the barman had to work hard this evening, satisfying sweaty women and men alike, what a Tart! Dingaling shut up! Birthdays galore Kebab Alan on 5 January.....Dingaling 7 January...and Ruth herself 15 January! Ruth cooked two delicious cakes, a raspberry and vanilla something and another iced one, a Victoria sponge plus Alan brought one too ! A big THANKYOU BOTH, plus we had EIGHT , yes 8 bowls of fat chips. A right Runnymede banquet, Betty Stoggs beer, but no wanton dancing girls for Dingaling to chase. What a pity eh ? Anyway, onwards and upwards...hey ho ..

1658*Simon*@ The Cricketers, Rowtown*19/01/2016

Our regular On-Scribe has had to report in sick with a mild case of Ebola and Bubonic from which he hopes to have recovered sufficiently to partake of a haggis or two next week. Should any of our readers find this report lacking in the clarity and veracity which they have come to expect, be assured we hope normal service will be resumed very shortly. The evening's event started with a Hare talk. A warning that everybody should be back before 21.00 GZ as the landlady was adamant that the kitchen would close on the dot. After that, no chips. Billy the Kid, on evening release from homework, took the warning to heart and set off at a cracking pace. After a stretch along the road, a turn to the left and into immediate danger. Many do not appreciate the dangers lurking in this area. Hidden behind tall wire fencing lurk a multitude of white coated, ragged trouser scientists peering into microscopes researching the most virulent forms of biological warfare. You may think that DEFRA has a benevolent function. Think again. That is only a front. Although the fencing may keep us away from contaminated ground, never forget the airborne germs. Mad Cow disease, anthrax, Blue Tongue, Jacob thingamabob, all could be blowing around and goodness knows what ailments are now incubating inside us. Having passed through the danger area, the run veered off somewhere else. At 20.58, Billy the Kid led the pack in and in no time all and sundry had gathered in the designated set aside. Now, personally, I prefer my chips double cooked in goose fat and served with a generous helping of sparrow's tongues. Not quite up to scratch these, but nevertheless, very welcome on a freezing winter night and the Hare had shown great generosity. Only trouble was, the nearest bowl sat between me and Billy the Kid and, boy, that kid's reputation for having the fastest draw on the block is justified. Just amazing how fast parts of the anatomy can move between bowl and mouth. But, he's a kind hearted lad really and he did let me have a few to round off another jolly Tuesday.

1659*All Up Front*@ Oxshott Sports Club, Oxshott*26/01/2016

This is a special Annual treat served up at the end of January for us all to enjoy. Our Hare ...All Up Front aka Cathy and her partner Simon create a magic trail to follow through Oxshott Woods and skirting the railway line and a few nice ponds, everyone is back for the big Nosh. Each year Geoff, our top Chef cooks us the best Haggis, Neeps and Tatties to eat, and delicious they were again too.....mmmmm said Dingaling! Jenny, our jovial Bar Manager bribed us all, I mean served us all with lots of drinks to go with the food. Football on in the background, and a few colds and bugs flying around. A big turn out tonight, no surprise there, but little gossip to report folks, will have to work harder for you next week. But I cannot promise you Nosh like this! Pig Pen was here, Tracy too, Briain had a plaster on his stomach....ooeer. Mother Brown, Tight Git Giles had the same lurgy as Dingaling. Simon Skoda was here with his mate Dave Friendly Len was about, Sodden Assets Mark and his Spanish Mistress were in town. Come out with us in Esher, next Run up ! Will be good for you. On On ! Spring is on it's way.....

1660      Top Man & Naked Chef      @ The Marquis of Granby, Esher      02/02/2016

We do not usually run from here, normally from The Greyhound across the road, so a nice change. No snow, no rain, so all is well. Top Man & Naked Chef gave us a smart run to work on, as we went round the golf course, past Marnies, another cosy little Pub, and off to Thames Ditton village, to the green and over towards Hinchley Wood. Along the railway line and over it, cleverly winding back through all the local roads, to give us a nice bit of green forest to run through to the pub. Top marks to you both! Fish & Chips aka Anna turned up from Dorking for this one. All the usual suspects too, and we had a great supping of Ale inside the pub plus chips! Tossler, Wasser, Agent Provocateur, Mother Brown, Tight Git, Pig Pen and many more had fun tonight. Tip for next week.....People are getting lazy when you see flour...SHOUT On On.....very important.** See you all next week.....

1661      Kebab      @ The Robin Hood, Guildford      09/02/2016

A little used venue for Weybridge Hash in central Guildford. Some welcome visitors joined us for a run that had highs and lows, cobbles and smooth, passages and wide open spaces. Masterfully linked by liberal flour the hare had us winding up and down the High Street passing 6 pubs in nearly as many minutes. The term undulating doesn't do justice to the ascents to be found in Surrey's prestigious market county town. It may have been v. cold but plenty of heat generated by the knitting circles checkers and some spirited front runners. Afterwards warmth arrived promptly and was chip shaped and sophisticatedly cooked with rosemary.
