Another good run in store from our IT Wizz, on a clear Summer's night, ideal for Hashing. No cricket to play here, but some Marlow Brewery beers to sample afterwards thanks to our kind Hare driving all the way there during the day !! How kind is he? We toddled off into the distance, everyone keen to enjoy a nice 5 and half mile hike. As you know, sometimes the unexpected happens, and this week, it was poor Alan who recently ran a Half Marathon, but tonight his limbs have said enough is enough. He has fallen for the David Beckham foot injury, and broken one of his metatarsal bones the long ones in the middle of your foot. Oh Alan, what are we going to do with you? Dusky maidens will now have to be at your 'Beck and Call ' ha ha! We wish you well. Back in the Clubhouse, after the tasty beers, balls were the order of the day, with Kung Foo Panda strutting his stuff round the Pool table, you know what they say....a misspent youth ! Molesey Matt, Simon, they all came and went..... Kerry & Tracy, Louise & Top Man, even Dingaling turned up with a pulled calf muscle to join Dishy Dave, who has done exactly the same! What is happening to our athletes this Summer???

It appears my run was so good it got a second write up from Master Bates

Our very own Hon Sec pulled it off again with a well marked trail (four bags of flour, he claimed) and didn't resort to laying the last OHMCC run backwards. He found even more greenery and woodland in the environs of deepest Ottershaw and Rowtown. At first he (nervously?) guided the pack through the checks and some were afraid that it was going to turn out to be a "guided jog". Then we were allowed to find the trail for ourselves. Who needs guidance when we've got Worzel in the pack? The numbers exceeded 20 and even Tosser was glimpsed ambling through the woods. Dishy Dave ran despite his still nursing a pulled calf muscle. Dingaling didn't run because of his pulled calf muscle. Is it a virus? The hare fooled everyone by not taking the in-trail via the well known (to old scrotes) footpath to St Peters giving a surprise ending to a great run. We sincerely hope that Mother Brown took notes for his Lightwater re-run. Back at the clubhouse there were no chips but copious amounts of tortilla chips with a variety of dips but, why did no one like the salsa? The real ale was served in 1/2 gallon jugs to cope, presumably, with a jolly and thirsty pack.

On arrival the hare was being propped up crutches. A sign of things to come! Still he had curtailed his harem of Kerry and Tracy to fling the flour round Woking this week. The trail lead us on a merry dance through Brookwood Country park, along canals over bridges and through the inners of St John's. It was about this time that it rained. Not just any rain but a tropical monsoon including hailstones which chilled even the sweatiest of hashers. So back to the pub car park as quickly as possible and to a scene akin to dogging (or so I have been told by Nigel!) with lots of writhing bodies trying to change into something dry in the back of a cars. Fortunatley no arrest where made and everyone made it inside for plenty of chips as our hare rested and recuperated along with the rest of the pack.

A lovely late Spring evening in one of Surrey's most idyllically bucolic areas with an equally idyllic pub to finish in. Recently taken over by Tillingbourne Brewery, the inheritors of the Surrey Hills brewery site, and doing a Tuesday special with beer at £2.50 a pint. We must come here more often. But I digress. What of the run I hear you cry? Well, off we set, a moderate pack, punctiliously at 20.01, out of the car park, down the road and over the dam, then a left into the valley. "Flow gently sweet Afton, among thy green braes". Now, in Ancient Brit Celtic, 'Avon' means 'river'. Hence, Avons all over the place and Robbie Burns never could spell. This particular one is not called Avon and seems to be a mere nameless tributary of the Tillingbourne, so Afton is as good a name as any. But follow it's green braes we did, north past Wotton Manor and over the A25. At this point 'we' becomes 'they' when 'they' diverged from the main group of Knickers and me. They carried on north, skirting the Downs, to Wotton Church. At this point, with the trail now turning north east, concerns were beginning to become manifest as to whether the return to the pub would be in time, not for chips but for breakfast. On ever On to the fringes of Westcott before a final turn in the general direction of home. Up the course of the Tillingbourne, though now less poetically viewed as exhaustion set in, and into Sheephouse Lane. From there pretty much a bent straight line 1 ½ miles back to Friday Street. And happily, it was still Tuesday so beer was still £2.50 a pint and Brian, recently known as Master Bates, made it back at 10 pm, in time to buy a couple at that price. Thanks Rupert, you gave us a lot to enjoy.

A lovely Summer night, with the breeze blowing brought out the Weybridge high rollers for this delightful trail round the woodlands of Woking. Doner entertained us with the delights of White Rose Lane Nature Reserve where they even have a stretch of water aptly named Hoe Stream..... the mind boggles. Also you can find bats, deer and frogs a plenty, ideal if you are an apprentice Witch. We scampered through all these woods, past pretty cottages and huge houses, and no one even got lost, or injured this week, so all good apart from Spanish Mistress almost falling flat on a bale of hay! Near the end of the run, certain male Hashers were distracted by a voluptuous girl in skin tight black lycra with strawberry pink headphones, running towards the pub, and somehow they followed her before realising she was noton trail!! Pity about that, still a delightful sight! The High Rollers tonight included Mother Brown, Tosser, Wazzer, Great Bear, and the Lego Girls were in town too, Kerry & Tracy. Andrew was back from his latest European trip. Spanish Mistress & Sodden assets were basking in their French tan recently acquired, and no longer look English!! C'est la vie. We wish Louise a very Happy Birthday. and George and Anna.....a baby any moment now ! xx A cracking night, with loads of munchy chips in a very nice restaurant pub, recommended. See you All next week at Lightwater for the Daylight Run !

We arrived in trepidation of another exciting Weybridge Hash run, a bright night and a clear sky gave us hope for what was to come. Our Hare was right HERE in front of us...good start. We remembered last time, then we quickly forgot it! Off we went, racing into the delightful woodland areas of Lightwater Country Park, which is an important part of what was the vast Bagshot Heath stretching from Bracknell to Windsor, back in Saxon times! We travelled successfully all over this terrain this time in daylight, purple orchids on view and so much easier than last Winter up in the forests, and down to Hammond's Pond, a popular fishing spot, towards the end before crossing the bridge which can take you into Bagshot but we were carefully shepherded safely home to the joys of The Red Lion, still as friendly as ever! Recommended. Mother Brown, aka Ron very kindly laid on chip butties, ...wow courtesy of the lovely Kerri & Jason, the publican's here and their friendly bar girl Beth, who all looked after us again ! Thanks. Visitor's tonight were Air Trumpet from Surrey, Molesey Matt came out for a run, good to see them both and Alan with his boot plaster in place, came all this way to see us as well ! Also, special mention to Andy Nuttall who recently completedwait for it.....just the small matter of running.....143 Miles nonstop from Birmingham to London in 43 HOURS!!!!!! Respect, amazement and joy. We send our best wishes to George, whose wife Anna has now given birth to a little Girl on the /03/06/15 @ 1329 – Juliet Irene Crook Love and kisses from us all XX. Do NOT miss the BBQ next week, after the run.
