Wow, what a sweltering night, think we are in the tropics here! Call Girl was rewarded tonight, with a big collection of runners who were able to enjoy the delights of the local Golf Club to run round, then off to Claygate Woods, with some tight jungly bits, which were a bit painful for some.....oh er....thankfully minor bruises only. Call Girl put a lot of recce's in for this one, and her due diligence paid off in spades, we jiggled through every bit of green stuff in sight, Dingaling and Naked Chef even saw a young deer! Mary went slower, and did not inflame his achilles tendon again, so he was happy. Visitors tonight were Claire, who Kate cleverly invited along to have fun, she did in a manner of speaking, ....`What I am doing?`, `Celebrity in the Jungle?` she loved it really. Drainoil graced us with his presence between airports, and even Knickers turned up with her hubby Jay, on bikes! ...I ask you? Kerry was back, upbeat as ever, running again with happy Tracy.....good to see you both! We invaded the pub afterwards, somewhat parched, poor Matt, needed to drink a bottle of water in his car first, as service was.....slow. A hot night for all then.....See you soon!

1526                      Worzel    @ The New Inn    23/07/2013

This cosy villa style pub, out in the villages of Surrey was our host tonight, from which Wurzel conjured up his usual, clever route for us to find our way round the countryside. From the off, he tried to trick us into going over the river, past the houseboats which has often been the way to go, but no, back we came to our surprise, and off way left, into farmers fields. Tee hee...he thought. Plenty of gossiping en route, but no faller's this week, thank goodness ! We ran through one field, whose crops were taller than us, fun. Slightly injured runners have all healed up, ....GOOD. Naked Chef is on the lookout, if you fancy setting a run...soooooon in September & October! Lots of fun was had by all tonight, and no animals to run with, either. Tracy was told she was....HOT, so there....and the hot muggy weather, made running an effort. Good to see Calamity, out on Wurzel's run, plus Kelly was back with the Robbie William's backing singer's....Kate, Claire & Laura....they are good too. Pig Pen was fit, so was Mary, and Dingaling could not stop talking, as usual. Hey, it was a good night all round. Come along, you'll love it !

1527                      Tracey    @ The Mayford Arms    30/07/2013

Nicely hidden away between Woking and Guildford, this sleepy little hollow of delightful woodlands was a treat ! Do not miss it next time. Our smiling hare, Tracy had created a greener than green route through the trees, excellent. Pig Pen was chosen as Tracy's crafty assistant to conjure up wicked check's to deceive us, and send us down the wrong path. He was entirely successful, the front running bastard's were led a merry dance indeed! Beautiful canopies of trees were along much of our route tonight, and all our runners were cracking on apace, we are all getting fitter you know! Call Girl, Butt Plug, Kerry, Simon, and Mother Brown all enjoyed themselves. Curious George will be celebrating his Birthday this Saturday and Anna from Italy made some delicious cakes with her cooking assistant Anna from Poland. Trevor even got down on his knees, in the pub, and said 'I like it '. Wasser even returned from Peru, just to run with us again, what a man! Another fun night with Weybridge Hash. It is the life to lead.....

1528                      Naked Chef & Topman    @ The Woodman    06/08/2013

Yet another fun night out with Weybridge Hash House Harriers ! Lovely large pub restaurant, with a big garden, on the edge of Ashtead Common, ideal location for us to explore. The scorching heat has gone, and a large gathering of runners arrived to see what was going to happen for this run. New visitors tonight were Claire, all kitted out in stylish running gear sister of Kung Foo Panda indeed! Lunchbox appeared late at 8.20pm, but still got round the trail....well done, good to see you again. Kate, Kelly and Laura were back, this is getting easy for them now, athletes that they are. Mother Brown, before he goes back to Australia for 3 weeks, helped one of our runners who was feeling a bit heady and they made it back safely to the pub, water at the ready. Curious George and Simon were galloping along tonight, in their new trendy black and grey gear. Pig Pen was roaring along at the front, must have had 3 Shredded Wheat before the off. Beautiful route through the trees, all round the Common, hardly any roads tonight, lots of flower laid down by Topman, ....says he is 'Only the Flour Man' ....well...Do you believe him? Naked Chef came up trumps with this one, one of her best !

1529                      Kung Foo Panda    @ The Seven Stars    13/08/2013

Very nice quiet, little homely pub and restaurant here, which we disturbed for our run this week. Much patience was required, to get a drink here. Lots of people going on holidays after this, or just back. Our intrepid Ruth & Alan have just returned from Prague Hash, this last weekend see pictures. They have a tradition where you hang up a pair of trainers on the line, and leave them there. Also there are statues of Stalin & more recently Michael Jackson in the city. Our run was well supported too, and we set off round a nice lake for starters, and then into the woods, great! Kelly & Laura are off on holidays, have fun! Kate and Claire raced round too. Much riverside running was done, along the Wey Navigation Canal, and our fit runners had a scare near the end, when we startled a herd of cows out of their slumber under the trees, and they bolted to escape us, nearly mowing down Call Girl & Spanish Mistress, who just hopped onto the bridge in time! Phew.....Also, Wurzel was up for a misdemeanor, as Ding a Ling saw him on a bridge and said 'Are you Fishing?.....and Wurzel said.....'No, I am just hanging my tackle over the edge!!!! Oh...er missus ! Stuart and Matt bounded along, on their Dad's excellent trail tonight, and we were generously rewarded with chips for afters.....Hey hey. On On. See you very soon. Don't miss out.

A little bit of history on hashing and how the run sheets used to look with a jump back to 1975, before computers and I was invented!

Run No: 1
Date: April 14th 1975 Monday
Time: 1800
Hare: J J Raper
Start: The Old Rectory (see map on Back)

The first run of the Surrey Hash House harriers will commence at the time and place stated above.

What is the Hash? - The Hash House Harriers is a cross country running club that follows a paper trail. The trail is laid by two hares. The runners are the hounds.

The leading hounds who are on the trail shout "on-on". This cry is taken up by the runners behind, so that even the last hound knows where the pack is heading.

From time to time there is a break in the paper trail. When the leading hounds come a break they shout "check". This cry is taken up down the line.

There may be a false trail from time to time, but this should not exceed 20 yards. The distance from a check to the re-start of the trail should be 50 to 100 yards.

The hounds search around for the trail, shouting "check" from time to time. The first hound to find the trail again shouts "on-on". This cry is taken up by the other hounds.

Sometimes hounds get out of earshot of the leaders. If in doubt where the leaders are, they shout "are you on?" Those ahead reply "on-on" or "check" as appropriate.

From the start, there should be "no" checks for about half a mile. The run may be for 3 to 6 miles. The whole run should have 4 to 6 checks. The last mile should be a run in without checks.

Where did the Hash start? - it is believed in 1938 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. The founder is said to be A S Gispert, who now lies in the cemetery overlooking the causeway between Singapore and Malaysia, having been killed at the foot of Bukit Timah in Singapore on 11.2.42 as a lieutenant in the Argyles. There are now branches of the H.H.H. in Singapore, Kuala Lumpur, Johore Bahru, Kota Kinabalu, Kuching, Hong Kong, Kowloon, Cyprus, Germany, Australia and England.

After the Hash - The run begins and ends at a designated place, which changes each week. It is always held on a Monday evening. There is beer at the end. To pay for this and the postage for the circular there will be a subscription of £1 per month.

At the end of the first run, there will be a short meeting to elect:-

Joint Masters
Honourary Secretary

You are invited to attend the first meeting, and bring with you, if you wish, two or three companions.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT BOARD

IMPORTANT UPDATE !

Advised > 30/07/2013

CL here ... Please note that I am NOT organising a formal Hashers' OxODs week-end this year (2013) as I have not had enough time to sort out the requisite Saturday night dinning arrangements ...
... thus my apologies !

BUT ... I am still working on it for next year (2014) !

*So ... I will be there over the weekend this year
13-14-15th. September 2013*

... and thus be doing the rounds looking for a suitable venue ... so anyone doing OxODs13 is welcome to join me ... and I am planning (Sat.) to do a pub crawl commencing at the Turf/Kings Head at 6pm ... and eventually eat at the Bookbinders ...

... and hope the weather is as good as last year's.

Again ... my apologies !

Oxford Open Doors

14-15 September 2013: Oxford Open Doors, now in its sixth year, is run by Oxford Preservation Trust in partnership with the University of Oxford. This free weekend provides an annual opportunity for local people to enjoy and discover more about their city. This year our special theme celebrates the legacy of William Morris, Viscount Nuffield, as an industrialist and great philanthropist. A new aspect of the programme is a special focus on exploring new architecture including much belonging to the collegiate University.

Brochures will be available from the beginning of August. Volunteer stewards are still required; to volunteer, please get in touch at volunteers@oxfordpreservation.org.uk or see www.oxfordpreservation.org.uk.

If you come please ... contact me and hopefully see you there as it's great and a lot to see! ... see below ...
