Not one, not two but three Hares!! It is to be hoped that this unusual practice does not set a new trend as our hard pressed Hare Raiser will have her work tripled in order to raise sufficient hares. Also it could become virtually impossible to know where the blame lies for hash transgressions or indeed where to give praise where this is well deserved. Anyhow about a dozen hashers set off from the George and Dragon for a trot around the Dittons. One of the hares, Kebab, came up with a new kind of flour with a sparkling glitter effect which was a help when there was sufficient light for it to be reflected. We pounded the pavements, went through the woods and there was even a short cut marked which nobody seemed to take much notice of and so back to the pub. Unfortunately there were no chips. Apparently the kitchen was closed. A great shame as this pub has always come up trumps in the past and has provided us with mountains of chips at no charge. On the plus side the pub was lively and there was a great jazz band performing. Guest Scribe Wasser

1596 Simon @ The Crown, Chertsey 25/11/2014

No hash scribe today, rehearsals 'darling' for the Am Dram (Oh what a lovely war) this weekend. This was Soggy Sainsbury's, deep ditches and fizzing power lines. It was raining when we set out and just carried on, on and on, this top quality wet splashing shiggy run. Simon is a man who does not disappoint; he told us that it would be wet and that we are 'Lucky, Lucky' people, so we are! We started out in the town, on some sensible footpaths, past the site of the Abbey, down along the Bourne and then into the fields. The ditches were full and Tracey looked for a bridge or a plank, a Damsel in distress, Pigpen was to hand, so opted to be the plank, he is a ride across the water. It was so wet our Saga Louts opted out of the hash early, but as we know, this is normal. A Soggy bottom run! To 'Crown' it off, some fine Chips, and Youngs Ales and lots of space. This was the type of run that adds to the character of your Trainers, adding to the smell that it just three times worse than the worst smelly socks you have ever smelt! We love it! 1597 Tosser @ The Running Mare, Cobham 02/12/2014

Nicely situated, set back from the road, with a green in front, this cosy welcoming pub was our home for the evening. Whoops....er ...run first Nige! Winter is coming, gloves will appear, then bobble hats, and maybe scarves as we dip below freezing very soon. Tosser sent us all around the alleyways and fields of lush Cobham land, no traffic lights or zebra crossings round here. Visitors tonight were C2me, originally from Tavistock, joined us, you are very welcome and see you again I am sure! Tracy & Kerry were back.....happy as ever...great to see them. All the boys were back in town, Pig Pen, Tight Git, Gorgeous George, Simon the Cheeky Chappie, Spanish Mistress and Sodden Assets were on site too ! We ran past Andy Murray's and John Terry's houses...need an electric golf cart to get to the front door ! The pub was great, loads of chips to eat, nice beers and a pub that seemed smaller than they remember said some, but a pleasure to be there surrounded by fabulous F1 original photos of all the great Brits.....Stirling Moss, Jim Clark, Sir Jackie Stewart, James Hunt and Nigel Mansell. Vrooom Vrooom !

1598 Tight Git @ The Wheatsheaf, Ewell 09/12/2014

This has become a must do run each year, Tight Git is completely the opposite to his Hash name, and I will explain the secret later! We set off into the undergrowth, green green grass of home round pretty Ewell Village. Elegant footpaths leading to more of the same, cleverly constructed route taking in all available parkland, and across the dual carriageway even, the cheeky monkey! It was a good run.....and now for the good bit! We were shepherded off into a pretty sidestreet to be welcomed by lovely Louise offering us hot mulled wine and hot mince pies.....mmmmmm....lovely on a Winter's night. How kind! These are the sort of things that happen on a Weybridge Hash.....so come and join us soon! The pub was nice too, good to see Dishy Dave back with us again, and Len even had his Santa hat on. Great to see Mother Brown back with us from Melbourne this week, after 3 months away. Good on ya Ron! MERRY CHRISTMAS Everyone!

These glamorous Crimbo nights, or was it Boogie Nights? You gotta be there, and boy did they come in their droves..... Must have been 32, or I can't count! Careful now. I tell you, people were dreaming of curry and beer, soon after we started the run! Virgin Hasher tonight, friendly Andy from Addlestone.....we'll see you again that's for sure, nice guy. Mother Brown brought the missus....Stephanie. Merry Christmas to you.

Kung Foo Panda's run, ably assisted by son Matt, and other son Stuart served mulled wine and chocolates near the end.....Whoo Hoo! Our route twisted and turned, all round the side streets, and industrial parks of Byfleet...my word and along the river Wey. Up Front Cathy was here too...lovely but not for food, same for Pig Pen Matt, pity we had a lot of fun. Tracy and Kerry were a hoot tonight, Brian decided to skate down the Brooklands dewy slopes and was duly punished for his devil may care attitude, two cut hands sadly, but no breaks! Careful is the word. Molesey Mauler Matt, raced along, smiling all night long, hey hey, I think he's struck gold. Georgie brought some Italian style to the restaurant.....his lovely wife Anna, sei molto carina.....(You know it George!) The restaurant argie bhaji was fabi doo's, we were starved for an hour and a half, poor Ruth was nearly eating the tablecloth, and Louise too, but lo and behold.....the good Lord provided us with food come five past ELEVEN.....and it was delish.....mmmmmm.....plus a Bangla here, and a Dangla there..... You missed a night and a half! MERRY CHRISTMAS.....On On! xx
