A warm welcome from THE TRAVELLERS OF IRISH ORIGIN. MILITARY POLICE GROUNDING THE CHNS. WILSON 2 MADE AN APPEARANCE UNLIKE MAULEN MATT. FLEECE STILL MISSING - AS IS DINGELWA. WE SET OFF INTO THE WOODS. PIG PEN FOLLOWED <sup>SOON</sup> AFTER RAEMING HIMSELF FROM VARIOUS OFFICES.

The walking Haul has arrived - Alan + the Grand master. As usual back to the pub, in case Len was lonely Wazzer was checking the beer out for us, on his own.

~~Piercing~~

The Haul advised if you not on flow - you not on flow. Linda might despate this. As he is a Willey hare!

Army Andy was still on Aussie time having flown in from Down under at 4.32 am. Hashing it is a jet lag cure!

Sodden Assets

A pack of very enthusiastic runners were out in the Surrey Hills for this beautiful nature trail. Visitors tonight were Dan the Man, he of the trendy orange trainers, plus Frank and his son Zachary welcome to you all! Thea came with her good friend Sophie again, making the running look easy. Great to see Ruth and Louise, plus Pig Pen, Tight Git and Kung Foo Panda, Great Bear, Andrew and Pocket Rocket. Dingaling went a bit doolally, dreaming of slices of Keyline Pie with his pint, and Sophie liked that idea too ! Sadly, back at the bar, it did not materialise. Plus Thea was too quiet, so we will have to make her talk more. We were off uphill as we were to do most of the night, into The Hurtwood, some 3,000 acres of land privately owned which created a 'Right to roam' for people in 1926. This area used to be home for sheep stealers, smugglers and poachers in these remote hills. We ran up Pitch Hill & Holmbury Hill, the third and fourth highest points in Surrey, Holmbury Hill Fort is second and the highest point is of course .....Leith Hill !! These hills are known as 'Little Switzerland'. We had a spectacular run with the best views around, and then we rolled down the hills , and back to the pub, which was particularly appealing, because it felt like we were in someone's lounge. The beers were good, and the lagers, and ....then came mountains of chips to soothe our aching limbs. Certain people had slight calf strains, due to doing too many sports, so we wish them all well.....quickly. Huge congrats to our Hares tonight, Spanish Mistress led us astray and Sodden Assets, well..... He just showed us too much woodland everywhere ! See you all next week for more fun ! On On

An avalanche of colourful runners amassed in the pub car park, felt like a Sunday morning race out in the deepest beyond of hidden Surrey, sort of Hobbit country. Lots of visitors tonight, One in The Eye from Surrey Hash, Bionic from Coulsdon Katie joined the new young 'Brit Pack' Thea, Dan & Sophie. Made in Chelsea....eat your heart out ! Thea and Katie, hoods up, turned into Eminem's 8 mile,,,younger sister's as the evening got colder, come 10pm. Did you know he is 42 years old now, wow, born in 1972 in Saint Joseph, Missouri. Fish & Chips ....Anna came all the way from Dorking, great to see you all! Also, Tosser, Wasser and even Daffy were here for this Dingly Dell of a run, so peaceful no cars, just the sound of the wind, just the odd two or three horses all keen to join in the run we even saw a couple with natural white nosebands. Tight Git Giles did his magic here, we went everywhere, beautiful views, so many farmers fields to cross, and a full 10K was completed after much fruitful checking to keep us busy. Racing along on the On In....Dingaling got chased by a little white Scottish terrier, all the way to the pub, and then the dog went in ! I tell ya. Now, more news, this pub is named after St Margaret's Well, which stands proudly in the lovely stepped garden, and is mentioned in .....The Domesday Book of 1086..... The villagers paid homage to their water and it was called Magswell, which evolved into Mugswell and the village name was born just 1,000 years ago !! The well is 42 metres deep, and is the main monitoring site for the whole of South East England. Splish splash.... Oh yes, food .....loads of chips to eat.....don't forget to join Rupert's Rave ...29 August – 31 August near Malvern.....see the flyer or our website...www.veybridgehash.org.uk See you all next week for another magical route , and hope the pub is half as good as this one ! On On..

The nights are drawing in, bit damp and drizzly at the off, but a lot of runners here, so we will have some fun. We had to cover up tonight, as no sunshine about, at this time of night. Visitors tonight were Professional from Madrid, and his friend Jamie, good to see you again ! Briain, ....yes that's how you spell his name, he's a bit different, and kindly brought his camera phone to capture the magnificent sunset going down, ....careful.....on.....very careful.....Heather.....oops I mean...The Heather!! We spent most of the night on Chobham Common, which is a National Nature Reserve with rare mammals like the water vole, and birds too, like the European Nightjar & the Dartford Warbler.....yeah....we got a few of them running with us tonight! Also the rare Sand Lizard...we ain't got one of them, a lounge lizard maybe, that might be...Dan. We had the Kerry & Tracy Show back in town, her of the Spanish tan and orange T shirt, great to see ya both ! Come more often. Plus Worzel was running madly, with his big smile and laugh as usual. What a man. We got a bit humid tonight, but hey ho, that goes with running about.

No one ran into any trees, or tripped into a pond, so all was well at the Inn. Calamity, gave us a cracking run, followed by yummy chips, and Mike and Lainey, the landlords of The Red Lion were very welcoming, looking after this Sweaty Betty bunch. Tracy has a clever knack with the ketchup bottle, but we won't go there, not now !! Another good night, and next week...on top of Guildford Hill, at Merrow, always great views! Do not miss it.

This really is quite an amazing location, which our very experienced Hare took full advantage of. Firstly, we ran through the outside footpaths of a few delightful churches, before setting off uphill and wherever we went, led to a view. We stumbled up the craggy, stony bits to find ourselves on a very hilly Guildford Golf Club, which Sophie told us she used to play on ! Good girl ! Birdies galore... As the run continued, we kept going up, and then, saw the most rich red sunset.....three times and very spectacular, see photos on this site. Great to see Tracy tonight, always a pleasure. It is holiday month, so no extra visitors joining us tonight, but boy, what a route fest we had, worth a video really. Sudden Assets Mark turned up on his Italian stallion.....no ...not the horse....his Moto Guzzi. In this cracking warren of rooms , huge pub restaurant, we were served 16 bowls of sweet potato chips...I ask you ?? No shouts for more tonight. Many of us want to come back and eat here...mmmmm. No scandals to talk of tonight, Alan walked the trail bravely, on his recovering broken foot, well done to him. Worzel, just keeps going on holiday, lucky....bug.....blue eyed boy !! Great Bear getting excited about his Bank Holiday , debauchery....I mean festivities.....Malvern Hills....eh We will see you all next week, for more thrills, and please do wear your best trainers, for maximum comfort !

WH3 – Rupert’s Rave Weekend

Arrangements for Weybridge's wild weekend at Rupert's country estate in the Malverns continue to forge ahead. It has now been decided that food and booze will be provided. The need to provide portaloos and portashowers depends on numbers. If the numbers make it necessary, the cost will be included on a per head basis. This is a family event and kids will be welcome details then stand as follows:

The Venue: Vines End Lane, Cradley, WR13 5NQ

Dates: August Bank Holiday, arriving morning Saturday 29th and leaving morning Monday 31st

Facilities: Camping with protected sites if the weather is bad. There are B & B's available in the area for the less adventurous.

Amenities: Pubs, supermarkets and other stores in the area.

Catering: Breakfast, lunch and dinner on Saturday and Sunday, breakfast on Monday. The fare will be basic but nourishing. Vegetarians will be catered for. A quantity of beer, wine and soft drinks will be included.

Entertainment: A walk / pub crawl on Saturday. Evening BBQ and jollity. A run on Sunday

Cost: As it stands, this should not be more that £30 per person, including something for the use of the facilities. There will be something more if extra loos are needed but it is unlikely this would exceed £20.

We need to know numbers so there will be a £5 deposit payable when you put your name down.

That will be refundable until mid-July. Don't miss out.
