Pig Pen

@ The Jack Phillips, Godalming

22/11/2016

All six of us gathered in anticipation of a wet and shiggy hash tonight but we were to be disappointed. The rain had parted as if by magic at 8:05. Just before the off we were up to 8 and further souls were gathered up as we set off through the graveyard. Two brave visitors tonight were satisfaction guaranteed from petworth and loose article from Godalming. I say brave as they had to contend with the sight of a bright red worzel dressed in what only could be described as a pair of pyjamas. At least he would be dry and cosy albeit with a large hole in his shoe. Pig Pen's trail had more U turns than a Donald trump election pledge although we could have done with a wall on a number of occasions while going off piste. We went up and down dales, some said that it was short of flour, others said it was well marked but all we know is that we were set a masterly trail. Dirty alleys and steep slopes covered with up-market leaves from storm Angus, threatened to send Brian sliding but much to the disappointment of the pack it wasn't to be. British rail take note that it is possible to run old stock on leaves. It was said that in 1987 Tracy fell down Holloway hill in the snow. No plaque or skid marks could be found of this potentially deadly occurrence. Godalming is said to have been the first place in the country to get electric street lights. Shame that Surrey county council are attempting to turn back the clock. Remarkably we all got back to the pub dry and unmuddied (I made that word up) with comments such as " Good run Considering the hare", "nice onion rings" and from the exGM "Love advantage of his run but hate heights". No I didn't understand it either but he had had a couple of beers. Jack Philips was the radio man on the titanic which came from around these parts (I made this up as I couldn't be arsed to look it up on Wikipedia) . For some reason I also have to mention that there was a cement mixer.

Tracy

@ The Bridge Barn, Woking

29/11/2016

Brrr it was colder than a bucket of penguin shit for Tracy and Katie's run around Woking. A hardy group of hashers gathered ready for the off with most concerned as to how they would get out of the fortress that is the pub carpark. The usual flour flinging had been replaced with a more reserved and precise female finesse along with all sorts of weird and wonderful symbols adorning the mean streets of Woking. I'm not one for modern art but some could have certainly picked up the Turner Prize rather than the jumble sale that won it. Along the canal, over bridges, under bridges into St Johns then on to Hook Heath and just when we thought it was all over there was a cruel loop before finally heading back to the warmth of the pub after this 6 miler. WH3 overwhelmed the bar so much so that a new barrel of Pride was required. Excellent chunky chips and a committee meeting dishing out some innuendo laden hash names (not all of my suggestions made it through!) and chilli sauce. Next week regular service will resume with DingALings return. Onon Megabit.

Tight Git

@ The Spring Tavern, Ewell

06/12/2016

The festive spirit was thriving in this upmarket village, inside the pub you needed a stylish haircut just to walk in ! Hey ho. Naked Chef and Topman were soon on the scene, swiftly followed by a group of jolly runners, out for a nighttime jolly. Visitors tonight were Little John, good friend of Nettlerash, they of the..let's go for a 100 mile run style.....ermmmm,nope ...we will watch you as you finish! Our Hare Tight Git, conjured up a Christmas treat, wandering in and around all the delightful lanes, and hidden footpaths that adjoin this thriving village. Tons of flour, kind short cuts for Lord Tosser of Weybridge and Wasser, but boy they nearly missed out on the piping hot mince pies which we were given from a welcoming household by chef Louise, plus hot mulled wine! Oh, the joy.....huge thanks, yummy. Pig Pen was racing along, Fish & Chips Anna too, plus Master Bates, amusing us again. In the pub, we settled down, on the benches for a lengthy natter. Some very tall lithe girl sauntered up to the bar, stopped Megabit in his tracks, nearly choked on his beer, conversation halted. Tee hee. Our new GM Doner, told us of a delicious bacon, avocado & chicken burger you can buy in Weatherspoon's...tasty California ..mmm, I want one. Dingaling back from scorching Thailand, flashing his photos, how does he do it, fitter than a butcher's dog!

Kung Foo Panda

@ The Rajput, Byfleet

13/12/2016

An eager crowd swiftly gathered outside this Indian restaurant on Tuesday night with certain individuals, namely Doner & Topman, saying.....to heck with the Run let's get stuck into the food now ! Ooh er misses.....that is not the Weybridge way.....we like to build up to something special with a nice 5 mile run, round anywhere you like in Surrey. Visitors warmly welcome included Becs, here for the run, along with Dad Hash Cash Malcolm, eager for good food....ay ay. Kung Foo Panda's son Stuart, was nice to see him too, smiling away. Katie, and Pussy Galore, ran for their lives, to enjoy the food even more. Lord Tosser, Wasser, and even Agent Provocateur turned up in a suit, I ask you ! Would you believe it, you would if you saw him. Spanish Mistress & Sodden Assets fresh from his shoulder operation last week, joined us, yippee..they are off to New Zealand , and more briefly Australia very soon...lucky things. Megabit's wife Charlotte was keen to transition from Zumba class to street runner, and did pretty good. Merry Christmas to you ! Also Great Bear's other half Helen turned up to her favourite restaurant, no surprise, hey ho. Even Molesey Matt bowled in, even after eating already to join us !! Then proceeded to tell us he got married last week ?? Yes Hurrah. Three cheers to you both !! Our evening was blessed with tasty Indian cuisine, which somehow kept disappearingyum yum. Kingfisher beer, and Banglabeer were the order of the day.....tasty tipples. Warmest wishes to you All from Weybridge Hash for a very mild Christmas ! Don't forget to join us.

Doner

@ Chez Doner, Ottershaw

20/12/2016

The pre Christmas run set by our glorious leader, Doner. Started with a rather salubrious meeting in the Murray Road car park. Seemed rather busy for a Tuesday. Extra hasher or just a regular Ottershaw dogging haunt? Anyhoos a good number turned up for the off. Across fields of galloping beasts (not WH3ers) towards the M25. I spent most of my time at the front due to a case of equinophobia. We were promised a busy road crossing – aren't we meant to be trying to increase numbers rather than killing off the old and infirm? Through trucking laybys littered with the usual trucking detritus being careful where you step! Along Bittams Lane heading through Homewood Park (Park Run on a Saturday morning if anyone is interested) and then on the home straight back through Otthershaw Park (that's my route!). Back to Chez Doner for lashings of cheese, rat (shaped) pate, mulled wine and beer was laid on to some very hungry/thirsty hashers. Thanks Doner for the supplies and a very Hashy Christmas to all.
