1535                      Giles    @ The Assembly Rooms, Epsom    24/09/2013

Another well supported run tonight, starting from the middle of Epsom. Tight Git aka Giles, is known for being kind, and also laying lots of flour. No change this week, you can always find your way back. Visitors tonight were Drain Oil, great to see you, he must be nearly 40.....AGAIN ! Also, Carol turned up, Gurney's Missus.....very nice to see you. Mother Brown, flew in from Holland, no holding him back, after a respectful visit to Arnhem. Our pack bounced round Epsom Common, and then Giles sent us off into the wilds of Ashted Common, protected Nature Reserve part of the City of London would you believe ? Our pub was huge, more like a Conference Hall, but very friendly, as all good pubs are. We supped to our hearts content, dear Len is recovering from his hip operation, but says he gets bored staying at home. Patience is a virtue ! Matt, Louise, Rupert, Claire and son Dan, Daffy & Little Bear were just a few who enjoyed this run. See You !

1536                      Sausage    @ The Queens Head, Byfleet    01/10/2013

Keen as mustard this lot. They want to chat and they want to run. We crossed over the M25, this large pack of ladies and guys all out on their favourite night of the week. We were given a very good trip round Byfleet, some of the best Estate Agent's picks of where to live in this greenish belt of Surrey. Sausage cleverly sent us one way, whilst the trail then doubled back another, well done sir ! His dear son Chipolata even text to say 'Sorry Dad I could not be there'. We raced round in no messing mode tonight, another dry clear night, and much flour enabled us to hit the pub early. Friendly place, where bowls of chips were swiftly upon us, to soothe those aching limbs or was that the beer? Publican was very pleased to see us !Some interesting famous people who have lived in Byfleet include Robert Bolt & Sarah Miles, Buster Merryfield from 'Only Fools and Horses' fame and moving swiftly up to Royalty, Henry VIII and The Black Prince, have spent quite a lot of time in Byfleet. We have been moving in good company ! On On...

1537                      Simon    @ The British Volunteer, Weybridge    08/10/2013

An October evening in the dark, and they still keep coming, eager to enjoy a Weybridge Hash. We disappeared off into the streets, soon to become the undergrowth of Weybridge Heath, and as our trail unfolded, checking was done by some, and Mark, of Spanish Mistress fame, was looking everywhere, even running round most of a whole lake, before realising, yes, he had to come back. We did not lose him, thank goodness. Kerry was back with us, having warmed up this morning with a 3 miler, what a worker she is! Ding a Ling, was talking too much, as usual, and getting away with it. Tracy having to put up with the banter. Visitors tonight were Simple from Guildford Hash and his fellow runner known as M.F.L , which when asked what it meant was told, .....well lets just say, the last word is Liability .!!!! He does not come into pubs after runs either. Our Grand Master Briain from the 90's was back again to enjoy himself, great to see you ! His daughter Hazel has a fab website writing a food blog.....have a gander ! chickeninacherrysauce.blogspot.co.uk Here you go Ruth, seventh heaven for you ! Our Hare did us proud, nicely in time after nine to get stuck into some Spitfire, and other beers plus, bowl after bowl of delicious chips, soon followed by chocolate cake to gorge on...Oh er... Neil, sons Stuart and Matt, plus sister Claire and son Dan were cracking along tonight. Calamity and Worzel, back for more enjoyment, and Pig Pen, seemingly faster each week now. Agent Provocateur Len was pleasingly back with us, hip repairing nicely, good! Ruth, Alan & Pig Pen, were all questioning when we last ran from here ? They know the answer now. Did you know? Lucy from Beatles fame 'Lucy in the sky with diamonds' was from Weybridge. See You All back soon.....

1538                      Calamity    @ The Catherine of Aragon, West Byfleet    15/10/2013

Our runs continue to prove very popular, with another large gathering tonight, nearly a Full Moon lighting the sky for us. Our Hare Calamity, used all her trump cards tonight, even in the first mile or so we were sure we knew the route, but back we came, having missed it on three occasions. Even Pig Pen came back, when we were on trail by the River Wey canal !Ladies on bicycles confusing him. Mosquito Matt was back with us again, good to see you. Much to-ing and frowning, and much checking was done by many, as we puzzled our way round this clever route, checks a plenty. Kerry & Tracy were bombing round tonight in their designer running gear....I think Nike sponsor them, on Tuesday nights...ha ha. The pub by the station was huge, like an empty house with a bar in the middle. The staff were very good, as Mark was to find when he ordered again, they remembered from the first time! Mother Brown helped Ding a Ling back to the pub, as they had gone along the canal again, thinking it had to be the On In, but alas, no flour was found. Lovely Louise was doing her magic in the pub, looking for new Hares, and succeeding as always. There were some lovely restaurants nearby.....Alan & Ruth take note....Tosser and Wasser were on form tonight, Wasser even thought Ding a Ling was wearing a fetching T Shirt.....oh er!! Those real Ales are strong aren't they

It all seemed so promising when we all arrived, with the Moon peeping out behind white puffy clouds, amidst a nice blue evening sky. Unfortunately for us, someone upstairs was throwing the toys out of the pram and the skies darkened, and the wind picked up, and even though we tried to shelter under trees, it was no use, we all got soaked. After the initial heavy downpour, we carried on with Pig Pen's trail, he gave us lots of checks which helped us, and we ran on through the rain. Poor Tracy, with a lovely new haircut, got soaked, as did Kerry and they had some fun in the pub too, with their amusing illustrations on the pub windows hey hey hey !! Lovely pub, on the outskirts of Guildford, where Alan used to live, well, nearby anyway. Mark and Linda were with us too, fun companions as always, plus chirpy Worzel. The Boys were all in attendance tonight, Neil, Simon, Malcolm, and Mosquito Matt who always seems to be advising on the latest new torches on offer, very useful. Wasser and his Lordship Tosser were in fine fettle, and even Len wafted into the pub. A heartwarming night, if a little wet en route, but still Pig Pen entertained us as always

Finally a word from our Glorious leader

All good democratic governments make occasional cabinet reshuffles and your Mismanagement is no exception. Some of you may remember that mention was made at the AGM of changes impending and these have now been put into place. GHB has stepped down as On Sec in order to spend more time with his family and his budding company. GHB has done a lot to put WH3 on the map and jolly up new members. Simon got volunteered for the post as his successor and is well on his way to repeating the triumphs of his predecessor.

Both Worzel (Colin) and Tight Git (Giles) also threw in the towel after many years of sterling endeavour on your behalf as JM's, flogging event tickets, keeping us orienteered, setting runs at a moment's notice. Into the breach has stepped George, who is helping out Simon with the intricacies of Twitter, and Ruth who is to represent equestrian interests for us.

So, there you have it. The changes have been seamless but thanks are due to the outgoing committee members for all their efforts and to the newcomers for volunteering, even if it was involuntary.

And finally, a policy note. Most hashes have regular changes of committee. That is good because it keeps ideas flowing and new blood getting involved. WH3 is a bit exceptional in ticking along as we do – and we do well - but the will is there and there is always room on the our committee for you. Personally, I look forward to the time I can hand over to a Hindu lady from Ethiopia. If America can do it why not WH3?

The GM/Trevor
