MegaBit

@ The Kingfisher, Chertsey

27/12/2016

Didn't get a write up for this one and can't remember what happened (even though I set it!) other than it was bloody cold, extremely foggy but it as a perfect example of how a run should be set by a superb hare.

The Pro

@ ~~The Withies Inn~~, The Good Intent, Puttenham

03/01/2017

Life continues to amuse, inform and frustrate us on occasions such as this. Weybridge Hashers always up for an adventure in the woods, hence the large gathering here in the dark, beyond Guildford, so early in the New Year! Our venue, a 16th century pub restaurant on Compton Common, just below The Hog's Back and nicely bordering Loseley Park, the Elizabethan Manor House. We disappeared off into a boggy wood, with much flour thankfully in attendance, trainers submerging beneath the mud, but we kept together, and all was well. Our new Hare, a regular runner with us, but his first Run set for Weybridge was The Pro, aka Stuart, much appreciated, and an adventurous trail was set, a few resorting to shortcuts, a bit too near the start, if you ask me ! Katie, and Pussy Galore were back, plus Naked Chef and Pig Pen, also Tight Git. Master Bates, Briain found himself up a creek to his shoulder blades, standing on a wonky log.... but was unhurt thankfully. As we wound our way neatly back to the pub, with a kind last leg shortcut we found to our surprise, the welcoming pub, as it says on their website.....was most certainly NOT ! With 20 odd people, thirsty, and peckish, we were cruelly denied, as it was CLOSED at 9.15pm !!! We frequent many gorgeous pubs, who love our custom across Surrey, this won't be one of those we will come back to again. Not amused. Cars did meander eventually to a pub in Puttenham, but losing a few frustrated runners en route. Here's to an OPEN friendly pub next week please ! Happy Birthdays to Kebab & Dingaling !!

Tosser

@ ~~The New Inn~~, The Angel Inn, Thames Ditton

10/01/2017

Back in 1780, parts of this pub were a Court House, and a Jail so things have gone quite upmarket locally since then! This welcoming pub was our saviour tonight, as for the second week running, the Hare set a run from outside a pub that had closed or in this case, closed down for good! Spooky stuff. Moving on from Rushett Road, where our run started from, we raced off after the flour, and eventually sloppy muddy slopes were found to entertain us, and we ended up hillside, and back past Hill Park Roses, and into some more footpaths around Surbiton. It was a good route from Lord Tosser, and the rain came to join us too! Run was brief, but it is Winter, so off we drove to the OPEN pub, opposite Giggs Hill Green, very nice. Visitors tonight, back with us with a bang was Legover .. aka Kerry, who promises to come out running more often this year, Katie and Tracy were very happy. I am sure they were singing songs from Girl Band Mis – Teeq at the end! Scandalous from March 2003, their biggest hit... Hey hey. Our kindly GM, Doner brought a delicious chocolate cheesecake to sample, and hey presto...chips did cometh too! Our Hash Cash Sausage, mysteriously turned up halfway, out of breath, must have sprinted too far from the car

..ahem....perhaps not. Our crowd went home happy and fed...ideal. Dingaling was hassled about the Panto, Snow White & The Seven Dwarfs....Feb 10 & 11.....Kingston. Even the lady behind the bar, explained the history of Panto in Britain. Don't forget to book your tickets for our fabulous Burns Night extravaganza in Oxshott again, 24 January....delicious it will be!

Wasser

@ The St Margarets, Twickenham

17/01/2017

A nippy old Winter's night in West London, a big stylish pub in this trendy area where crisps are the new chips. Chefs do not work late round here! Our jovial Hare seemed to have a trick up his bag of flour, which bode well. A nice group gathered in the street, and we were off, torches in hand. Nice to see Tight Git Giles back with us, and Master Bates seems to be back on top form. Sausage started from the beginning! Lord Tossler & Agent Provocateur awaited our arrival in the pub, just checking out any fair maidens, while they waited! Megabit, on the run lost one of his flashing green trainer lights, and Master Bates found it! What a trail, it seemed a jumble of many parts, as Legover correctly suggested, but somehow this was a triumph of a run. Wasser surpassed himself, loads of flour, we did not get lost, and the route all round St. Margarets, Moor Mead, then Isleworth a bit, before coming home via Twickenham Green, and on again into Twickenham, by the river Thames and cleverly through every alleyway there was. What a man! Hurrah, pints all round. Doner was generously offering packets of vegetable seeds for all, and save for no chips, it was a good pub! No saucy gossip this week sadly, except that Katie had a cold ankle, but did not want anyone to give it a good rubbing down with A Sporting Life !! A nice hot shower Girl, and off to bed with you. Haggis for All next week in Oxshott, don't miss it ! On On.

All Up Front

@ Oxshott Sports Club, Oxshott

24/01/2017

You better believe it, this is a top event on our busy calendar each year much anticipated by all for a cracking run through Oxshott Woods and round Littleheath Common pond, at the start which was in fact... frozen! Big gathering in the Clubhouse beforehand, and then out running with the torches. Visitors tonight, great to see Daffy & Little Bear back with us again, her with the big loaty Dr Who scarf, and many warm clothes. Fish & Chips Anna and Andrew too. Our esteemed fast Hare, All Up Front created her normal quality run round all the best routes for running, conjuring up a nice four and a half miler for us to slippy slide around. Super terrain, no wild animals to be seen, but a beautiful...starry starry night, paint your palette blue and grey.....which Don McLean song ...Vincent just popped into my head! Women were hungry in the woods, for....FOOD. We raced home to a cosy warm clubhouse for drinks and Haggis.....neeps and tatties. A food queue was formed in no time, I wonder why? Our chef Jeff and staff cooked up a treat, large portions, and delicious it was, with 10 Kilos of spuds peeled, all for us to eat.....mmmmmm. Then blow me down, Ruth had cooked a traditional Scottish dessert for us, Cranachan, raspberries folded into cream with honey, whisky and oatmeal. Oh, the joy! Maybe Dingaling will not go back to Thailand after this sumptuous Winter Feasting! Too good. The bar ladies, Jennifer and team looked after us brilliantly, we went home suitably stuffed!
