Start	:	Oxshott Sports Club, Steel's Ln, Oxshott KT22 0RF

Run Report 2028...Oxshott Village Sports Club...OXSHOTT...23.1.2024

Yet another Weybridge Hash night to savour, Top Man & Naked Chef set this late afternoon, and we all turned up keenly close to 8pm to run it. Must be 10 degrees milder than last week too. Off into the woods we ran, torches in hand, and some naughty locals had rubbed out quite a bit of our flour trail. A beautiful Oxshott Heath landscape to run through, even at night, hundreds of Silver Birch trees surrounded us, and Scots Pine appropriately stood tall. Och Aye !

An hour on the run did us all the world of good, back at five past 9pm. Into that nice cosy warm clubhouse here, and Grand Master Great Bear aka Rupert, had us all reciting one of 10 verses of Address to a Haggis by Robert Burns, of course !! Then we piled in for the generous portions of Haggis, neeps and tatties from the hot kitchen, where chef Jeff served up yet another tasty meal !

It was delicious, and thanks to his wife Maire as well, and the bar staff, Tia and a guy with no name. Now the gossip is good tonight, 'Did You know Tight Git Giles has 3 chickens in his Ewell village garden, all alive too, and they are called Tikka, Masala, and Biryani, and none have been cooked yet, as they kindly supply FREE eggs to the Family ! Bribery, I ask you !

Guests tonight, were Fish & Chips aka Anna from Dorking, Helen from West Byfleet, Cathy aka All Up Front, Henry, Pig Pen Matt and also Mark & Linda were here to shine, ALL added a warm glow to our Foodie Evening ! We send our love and warmest wishes to dear Calamity Jane, who is resting now at home. It was a pleasure to also see Wurzel with us tonight, although his knee popped out yesterday. Mark is slowly recovering from his Hip surgery, and All the Wise Men were here, except Master Bates, who rather surprisingly chose to go to Book Club in London instead. Poor decision making, methinks. The beer did flow, and we were allowed to stay a while, unlike some pubs these days. Spanish Mistress told us she keeps Bees, in the garden by the Thames, but that they are not easy to control or predict.

*Next week's Tuesday night run by Kebab, will be from The Flower Pot in Sunbury, TW16 6AA on the banks of the river Thames, so don't miss it ! See Ya there, 7.45pm. On On.

Run,	:	2029	30 th January 2024
Hare	:		LOWER SUNBURY
			Kebab

Start : The Flower Pot, Thames St, Sunbury-on-Thames TW16 6AA

Run Report 2029...The Flower Pot...LOWER SUNBURY...30.1.2024

Our local Radio DJ Alan set this one on the banks of the river Thames, for our enjoyment. This lovely pub and now quality Hotel too, has been on this site since at least 1712, and was originally called 'The Virgin and the Child'. Originally a Coach house and stable, you get it ? A nice dry night, no storms either, made for an easy run, which Kebab Alan used all his skills to make a very interesting maze of a 7 kilometre trail, you should have been with us ! We were last here during Covid in November 2021. Our local lady Jo, Mum of the Twins was not able to join us tonight, hope to see you again soon ! There were only a dozen of us tonight, but we had a right good time, in and out of the pub. Hare kindly laid on chips, thankyou !

This historical village dates back to 962 AD, when King Edgar granted land to his kinsman. Our great Queen Elizabeth the Second visited the Walled Garden here in June 2001, to view the Millenium embroidery work.

Top Man, Megabit, Great Bear, Kung Foo Panda, Henry, Giles, The Machinist, Dingaling, did the run and Lord Tosser, Wasser and Ard'on Provocateur joined us in the comfy lounge bar for drinks. It is true to say that THIS evening, our dear Hare for NEXT week, Nettle Rash Andy, did set the flour for the run, and wondered why we did not turn up !!?? We will be there Andy, but not until next Tuesday ! People are already thinking about Spring and Summer holidays, so get your plans in order, and go off for a 2024 adventure ! We do welcome new runners all the time, so come and join us, for fitness and fun, any Tuesday evening at 8pm as we roll through winter into Spring !

No banter to report strangely tonight, everyone was very chilled and polite, except poor Andy, who we WILL see next Tuesday, on 6 February from The Station pub, opposite West Byfleet railway station. KT14 6DR. See Ya there, will be a blast. On On.

Run	:	2030	6 th February2024
Hare	:		WEST BYFLEET

Start : The Station, 2 Station Road ,West Byfleet, KT14 6DR

Run Report 2030...The Station...WEST BYFLEET...6.2.2024

The Weather Gods looked kindly on us tonight, as we arrived for 8pm, but our poor Hare Nettle Rash, he got wet, and had to set a lot of it again, yes for a third time in 8 days !! Not so funny. Anyhows, a good turnout tonight, nearly 20 in all. The rain stopped and the wind too, and we were off, with torches still. Under the railway arch and into every bit of the surrounding village as possible, with excellent use of many alleyways. We did reach the river Wey and then swiftly back by 9pm ish said Andy for the chips ! I remember coming into this friendly pub, just after Covid lockdown, for my first pint in ages, we had to sit in the garden, of course, NOT near people at the bar. Rules is Rules then. All Customers were sent outside with their drinks.

First the very sad news which Wurzel kindly informed us of tonight, our dear running friend of many years, Jane aka Calamity has passed away peacefully, this very morning, and we send her Family, all our love from the hundreds of Surrey based Hashers she must have met down the years. A pleasure to have known You, all this time. XXX.

Travellers returning tonight were Sausage, fresh from a month in India, and seeing the beautiful ivory white marble mausoleum Taj Mahal, in the city of Agra. Built in 1631 by Shah Jahan, in memory of his favourite wife, Mumtaz Mahal, after the birth of their 13th child. Also,

Megabit is off on a short trip to Bangkok, on business, enjoy the food ! It was great to get back in the pub tonight, as the rains started again. Bar staff did us proud, and we had a long long table that accommodated us All for once ! Thanks Andy, a cracking run, you can relax next week, as it's only a mile up the road to The Cricketers in Row Town, Addlestone. KT15 1EY. We can call it a Valentine's Run, so wear red, if you wish ! Come on out you runners, it is very mild now ! On On

Run	:	2031	13 th February 2024
Hare	:		ADDLESTONE
		Megabit

Start : The Cricketers 32 Row Town KT15 1EY

Run Report 2031...The Cricketers...ROW TOWN...13.2.2024

This is a gorgeous quality gastro pub with a pretty Family friendly Kids garden that we have been coming to for the past 20 years or more. Fresh off the back of a half a million pounds refit in November 2023, they now offer delicious Barrel & Stone, freshly made pizzas, but sadly not after 9pm at night. Food here during the day is excellent though.

Megabit aka Simon, incredibly drove from work and set this at nearly 6pm in the dark and rain, a nice trail, all round every bit of woodland there is around here, a bit of shiggy too of course, and also up and down across the local hillsides towards Addlestone, and then back up Franklands Drive from the green slopes to the hill, and down to the pub. A wonderful 7K run, and we were not in the car park again until 9.20pm, but hey ! Into the bar, beer on tap, and Simon very kindly brought doughnuts for All, but we are not really allowed to bring food into a pub restaurant. Next time, pizzas then, and we will get here earlier.

Guests tonight, Greg, his second run with us, a warm welcome to You ! Matt was back, so too, Geoff and Louise, Giles, Rupert, Neil, Alan, Dingaling, Andy but without his dog Red tonight, Trevor, John, Briain, Malcolm, Wurzel who continues to amaze, doing his third run in 3 days !!! His body somewhat tired, of course. It was a great route tonight, bits of all different runs mashed together for a new one ! Thanks Simon. Also Louise continues her marvellous work, each year organising all the different Run dates, and who is going to set them, and when. BIG thanks to YOU ! Amazing.

Spring is coming, daffodils are bursting through, and You lot need to be out out with us !! Where are YOU, no excuses for FREE exercise eh ! The beer is your reward. We NEED You next week, The Great Bear will guide you round Stoke D'Abernon, the village at the back of Cobham from The Old Plough. KT11 3BN.

See Ya there ! On On.

Run	:	2032	20 th February 2024

Run Report 2032...The Old Plough...STOKE D'ABERNON...20.2.2024

A dry chilly moonlit night, as we gathered outside for this one. A stylish Great Bear run, no surprise, and boy did we get an Estate Agent's guide to the property market round here !

Weaving around, we passed through the pretty St. Marys Churchyard, where dear Rupert's Family are resting, and we moved closer towards Cobham passing The Running Mare en route, before diving into the Private Estate on the right, and wow so many beautiful homes with carefully floodlit garden complexes. A few miles of adjoining footpaths brought us eventually back to our starting point, an hour later. A gorgeous giant Sequoia, we ran past on our travels, wowsers ! Dingaling unable to borrow any Ferraris, on the driveways though.

Into this warm, characterful 16th century pub restaurant, part of the thriving Pearmain group of 4 Bistro pubs in Surrey, packed with punters tonight, eating or drinking. This building used to be a Courthouse with the gallows outside !! Tonight was full of laughter, Birthday Boys, Wasser brought doughnuts, Giles brought some French Fancies, down boy Dingaling ! Also next week will be Rupert's Birthday too, so we are awash with Pisceans tonight. Very HAPPY BIRTHDAYS to all ! Kebab was also keen to advise us of food poisoning in Fast Food outlets, so take your pick. His new job is going very well, and we are hoping Meriel will also have a brilliant new job very soon !

Now whilst out running, we were discussing the merits of torches, and Wurzel said he could not wear a headtorch, as he moves his head about too much, whilst Matt came up behind Dingaling, and said he had a big one !! Errmmm, no. Inside the pub, Dingaling having said that he met the famous Carry On actor Kenneth Williams in London, and then reminded us that KW had said....If he sees innuendo in a Script, he.....whips it out straight away !!! Wey hey, ding dong.

Our fun, fitness and laughter train moves onto West End, Esher next week, don't miss it, will be at the gorgeous Prince of Wales, recently expensively refurbished in November 2023. Wurzel will no doubt create another green gem for you All to enjoy. West End Lane, Esher. KT10 8LA. Be there with your torches ! 8pm start
