Strange things happen on a sunlit evening out in the woods of Surrey. Mark had trouble even getting his White Van Man into the car park and wisely parked outside to avoid more damage to his roof. Gracious Pond is highly likely to have been dug out in 1308, by the owners of the land owned by Chertsey Abbey, as they were building a new mill, at the time. Our run was just spectacular, with the sun glinting through, everywhere we went across Chertsey Common, and Chobham Common, we traversed Langshot Bog, and the Ram stream that runs through Chobham Park. Many runners gathered, visitors were Popeye again and Fish and Chips, and smiley Katie, lovely to see you and also The Pro, back from Madrid to see us again, and Tosser had provided a great route round this Nature reserve and heathland area. Back at the Cricket Club, the bangers were sizzling.....the food I meant, not the women this time !! Delicious well done burgers to munch on, plus chilled beers to boot ! Sheer bliss. Our Chefess was Becky, great job, while her brother Chipolata was eating instead of running, and Dad Sausage was drinking, as well !! The AGM was fun, Tosser opening proceedings with thanks to the Committee members for their work, and then our RA ..Wasser started the comedy with selected runners lambasted for lack of car space, poor Spanish Mistress and Soddan Assets, others were even complimented on a job well done ! Very rare indeed....Andrew's son Pocket Rocket , one of our young un's was highlighted. Kebab spilt his drink, Mark made a delicious Banoffee Pie, yummy salad and gorgeous food from Ruth, Linda & Louise.....Huge thanks to you All, and the Barbie Team.....come back again soon ! Molesey Matt, great to see you again, helped our Cricket Club Host Simon, behind the bar.... A big thanks to you ! What a night.....Ding Dong.

A seemingly ordinary start from our street corner pub, sent us off into green pastures pretty quickly. We were soon off into the local farmland, and woodland around here, and nettles and brambles were keen to nibble at us, at every turn. Visitors tonight were Dishy Dave, great to see that big grin again, and also Richard, he of the back pack, with no money in it, but a keen sense of humour which suits us a lot ! Good to see you both again. Also our Yorkshire lass, Jo was back from doing the Isle of Skye half marathon, in a little over 2 hours, well done indeed ! Much cash raised for charity. Hip hip Hoorah ! Miniature Shetland ponies were close by, but no bareback racing was organised. Andy, Mr ULTRA, the long running man was back from his latest race against his body. Welcome back ! Our Hare Simon, had us slipping and sliding in the mud, but we forgive him, seven miles of fitness later, we were rewarded in the pub, with onion rings, cold beers , chips and lager.....lovely ! Mother Brown was back, and Wasser and Tosser, and Worzel, Naked chef and Topman too ! No real juicy gossip this week, our pub and staff were great, and certain people stayed very late discussing said gossip ! Worzel when asked whether he would come to next week's run, just said 'I know who is setting it and I know the area ' so probably not ! Cheeky monkey...Another fun night with Weybridge Hash !! See ya next week.

Mother Brown

@ Hare and Hounds, West End

19/07/2016

Another fabulous night out with Weybridge Hash, a secluded pub in the village of West End. We chose to come here again, on the hottest day of the year, touching 33 degrees earlier today in Oxford apparently. Car gossip.....a flash fat Ford Mustang, came humming down the road, looking to park....we were amazed, t'was those big spenders, Top Man & Naked Chef, enjoying all that black leather, and air con seats.....Dingaling had some ideas as to what he might do, in the car, and with whom !! Shhhhhh..... Anyway, we were told at the off, by our esteemed Hare ...Mother Brown that we were only able to run tonight, as long as we had not taken anything, of course we hadn't. No Olympics shenanigans here !! We sprinted into the alleyways on our way, getting hotter by the minute ! Visiotrs tonight were The Pro, back again, with his friend Manuel, who we have not seen for a year, he's been working abroad. Great to see you both ! We had a fabulous trail, Chobham Common, Bisley, Aldershot & District Military lands, and even past a stark prison with 15 foot high barbed wire to keep us out, HMP Coldingley. Enough said. Dishy Dave was back, after a day's gardening, brave man, and happy Katie too, now getting super fit missing her Tracy though. We had a ball, Briain took some photos, en route as usual. Back at the pub, all sweaty Betty'd up, we found our way, beer in hand out into the delightful large garden, plus a big Wendy House too ! Chloe and Veronica, kept serving us with drinks, and lots of bowls of chips, hurrah and many thanks ! Pig Pen Matt was diligently checking everywhere, as was Worzel. Also Andrew and son Pocket Run, sprinting along. Spanish Mistress and Soddan Assets Mark, brown as bears ! Really.... Tosser was seen safely back at the pub, a bit later, no shortcutting for him ! Our night was complete. Summer is truly here, in England, just for now, just for two days. On On to the next !

Pig Pen

@ The Hurtwood Inn, Peaslake

Those who turned up with torch, iron rations, navigation equipment and camping gear ready for a Mattathon were disappointed. Not tonight. A genteel and well thought out trot around the Hurtwood was what awaited. Some of the best hashing ground in Surrey around there and a fine summer evening to set it off. A good pack considering the long commute, swelled by a couple of visitors recently returned from the Solomons and Simple back to get some real hash training. Our ranks were further honoured by Charlotte, On Wife to On Sec and Fish & Chips who obviously couldn't overlook something so close to her doorstep. Punctually, somewhere around 8pm all set off out west towards Hound House Lane, then a very long backcheck swung the trail south. Ever mindful of the welfare of his pack – well at least there has to be a first for everything – the hare was on hand to offer a shortcut to the halt the lame and the blind. They shamelessly took it (you know who you are). Now with his reputation to uphold and the infirm safely on course for home, the flour could have been expected to proceed up Pitch Hill. It didn't, but it did head up onto the ridge and along before descending gradually along small twisting trails back down the valley and on into the pub. Some good back checks kept everyone more or less together and all back pretty much within the hour. Then, as if further to destroy his reputation, numerous bowls of chips. Must have cost him an arm and a leg if the price of beer was any measure of pub prices. Around the tables there was much speculation as to the fate of our regular On Scribe, reportedly seen in his smart new Audi just before the run a mere 300 yards from the pub. He may have decided that it was the wrong Peaslake and headed off looking for something nearer Godalming but he never appeared. If you ever encounter a ghostly figure behind the wheel of a blue Audi cruising the lanes of Surrey emanating eerie calls of 'On On' you will know why you never see Run Reports any more
