Andrew & Pocket Rocket @ The Anchor, Wisley

31/05/2016

I tell you, drama and entertainment follow Weybridge Hashers and their visitors everywhere ! Tonight, we arrived on a cold dank night, more akin to October than close to early Summer. Covered in leggings, waterproofs, hats, we were hopeful for this run. Andrew and Pocket Rocket seemed pleased as punch, with their already set run. We were off, alongside the river Wey, which was our friend a lot tonight, plus The Wisley golf club immaculately cut as ever. We travelled across the M3, then back across the M25, via Ockley Commons and Ripley Commons, under some delightful canopies of forest above us. What a treat ! False trails, back checks, kindly laid Short cuts, masses of flour, what more could you ask? We skirted all along the boundaries of RHS Wisley.....very nice, nettles neatly avoided with our dress sense tonight. The pub was very nice, chips did arrive at 9.30 after hours, a surprise, and Ruth did come bearing gifts of baby Sweet pea plants, and many others on offer, how generous of her, kiss kiss. Great turn out tonight, Pig Pen Matt, Tight Git Giles, a happy Katie back from Cyprus, Tracy getting lost on the golf course, with Ruth and Mother Brown. Agent Provocateur Len, lost on the short cut, kindly found by Giles. Sausage Malcolm here.....running again....marvellous. He's after the beer. Great Bear grinning, Kung Foo Panda looking fit, and Dingaling talking a lot...marvellous fun ! All we can say is hat's off to our top Hare's, Dad Andrew happy to offer Pocket Rocket all the glory ! On On for more of the same next week.....ps t'was great to see Little Bear & Daffy on our last week's run out !!

Fish n Chips

@ The Spotted Dog, Dorking

07/06/2016

This was exciting stuff, we were told to meet in a car park, within the shadow of the Church with the tall spire.....all very cloak and dagger me thinks. Not many turned up, but then a whole host of runners appeared out on the hills something must be up ! Visitors tonight were..'Not Quite Sure', he from Guildford Hash, great to see you again. We wended our way through the little back streets within Dorking town centre, nicely residential cottages and then off into The Surrey Hills, up to the Bandstand or Viewing Point, looking down over Dorking. Fish 'n Chips aka Anna created a wonderful route all the way out to Westcott, where we found a back garden laden with cars from 70 years ago, and the house crumbling down as well. Off past more delightful streams, and nearly up the hillside towards Denbies, but no Anna duffed us up like a right kipper again, clever lady ! Back through the delightful UNUM estate, and finally into town once more. Into the pub, Anna supplied not one but two Birthday cakes to celebrate the big day last Sunday ! And then chips too, as we chose to sit out back, on what was quite a humid night for All but a brilliant one at that !! A big Thankyou Anna ! xx On On. Ps. Ps. Kebab...aka Alan recently took on a Triathlon, and amidst seasoned 350 runners, swimmers and cyclists, he only gone and BEAT one hundred of them.

1679Tequil'over*@ The Watermill Inn, Dorking*14/06/2016

Weybridge Hash just keeps on giving ! Beautiful location, beautiful beer and beautiful women ! Oh yes, the run, a bit damp and slippery underfoot as we climbed Everest, or is it in fact Box Hill ? Our Hare Tequil'over was nowhere to be seen at the start, but flour was everywhere. Latecomers, Kung Foo Panda & Simon, found their way up top, climbing as you do. Happy happy Katie was back again, with Tracy and Dingaling needing new trainers for sure. Visitors tonight were Popeye....and also So Posh (both Barnes Hashers) who was helping our Hare, up the slopes. We even had ropes all rigged up to climb the rockface, plus we crossed the Stepping Stones twice well some of us did ! Brilliant run, and fab views across Dorking from up on high.....plus stinging nettles a plenty, many a small prick was had by some ! Ooh you are awful ! Pig Pen Matt even saw a Barn Owl circulating as we all ran across the open fields. In the pub, things continued to impress, countless bowls of huge chips were delivered, Mother Brown was unsure which bowl to start on. Len & Joy came to sample the menu and the company. What a night, oh yes it was ! Our Honourable Horn did us proud with his run! Get here next week, we are off to Horsell !

1680Master Bates*@ The Plough, Horsell*21/06/2016

A pretty little pub hidden away amongst the trees and a good location for our Midsummer Solstice Run. Visitors tonight were 'Is It Safe' from Sydney, who runs with us from time to time. Good to see you ! Naked Chef & Top Man were tanned from their Greek Odyssey sampling delicious seafood, and beer and wine on a regular basis ! Lucky things..... Tossler and Wasser turned up in convoy to amuse and contradict, a pleasure as always. Master Bates, our Hare tonight, took us off into the woods, as you do, and by jove we kept running ! No tree frogs or lizards around, but Kung Foo Panda & Simon made up the difference. A beautiful trail, dancing through the tree ferns, everywhere, Horsell Common was nearly all covered. Worzel was on top form, when asked 'How are You feeling tonight ? He replied....I don't know, I have not felt myself lately !! Hmmm. Needs a drink. Spanish Mistress & Soddan Assets get browner every week, and Tossler managed to stroll in a lot laterwhere had he been ? Who was she ? Great Bear joined us in the pub, excellent. The longest day of the year, came and went with Weybridge Hash, ever alert.....more of this running malarkey next week. See Ya ! Wimbledon is almost here. New balls.....

1681Great Bear*@ The William IV, Albury*24/05/2016

This picturesque 16th century Ale house nestled on a hillside is a beautiful setting for a drink, a meal.....or what was it ?oh yes, a run ! Another dank night, what a month of rain we have had, as we congregated in the car park, almost being run over by Alan, as he drove in. Hashers are precious. 'Not Quite Sure' joined us again from Guildford Hash....hurrah !

Just soggy and damp everywhere we went, but what a beautiful spot in the Surrey Hills this is. Great Bear, whose Hash this was, arrived in his under garments, or so it seemed, as we were all covered up in waterproofs, which proved wise later on, as the nettles got closer to those legs. Marvellous views everywhere, and this area of 3 hamlets, one of which is called Little London, dating back to the Great Fire of London in 1666, started by accident in a baker's in Pudding Lane. People moved here to live, hence the name. Our run was superb, splashing about the countryside, and scaring the horses accidentally, so sorry. We arrived back at the pub, a steamy mess of heat. Eager to sup a pint of 'Shere Drop' or a pint of very expensive lager. The photos will amuse you, this is a pub steeped in history, the lower the doorway the older the pub !

Tight Git Giles returned, tanned from his Hols, and Sausage & Chipolata too looking suitably burnt, I mean tanned. Jolly times were had in the pub, and here's to the next Weybridge Run !! Cheers
