A cold wintry night it may have been, but we hardy Weybridge Hashers were keen as mustard to set off for this run, cos we was getting cold ! Off we did trot, but our Hare was nowhere to be seen, where was he? He sent us into woodland everywhere, which is always good and tree roots were aplenty, poor Louise fell over and banged her knees we send her our love for a swift recovery XX. Visitors tonight were Andrew, GB, also Daffy and Little Bear topping up her tan, in shorts again, what is she like!! We even found ourselves, in Ashtead Park Nature Reserve, a jolly time was had running along and dreaming of that pint. Whoops. Tosser said he did not want a flattering report, so we will gloss over a very good green run, and thank the lovely staff at The Brewery Inn who decided to give us a huge platter of food to eat!! Delicious onion rings, chicken legs, potato wedges, and mmmmmmm just because we turned up in their pub, how nice, we WILL be back ! Tight Git Giles, also very generously gave us all yummy slices of his Birthday cake.....what a night.....even Ding a Ling had to miss out on his KFC !

1611 Mother Brown @ The Red Lion, Lightwater 10/03/2015

Well, you couldn't make it up, could you? The Adventures of Weybridge Hashers, all over Surrey are pretty special over the years but this week, we were tested in a different way. Our illustrious Hare, Mother Brown, set a trail in difficult terrain admittedly, not easy to identify a difference in surroundings, so he got lost when he set it ! But he did not tell us at the off, NOT to go where the flour was wrongly laid.....Hrmmmmm, so out in the darkness, we found ourselves two and a half miles from the pub, in the woods, up Curley Hill road. Luckily, our GPS watch runners, guided us back to the pub, at ten to ten! Kerry, Tracy, Ruth, George & Nigel followed Pig Pen Matt, and Molesey Matt all the way quickly back to the pub, to get a drink! Mother Brown Ron, was eager to buy a few pints, and the chips had been eaten by Alan! The moral of this story, as Kerry cleverly put it, 'Don't start a Hash, unless you have seen a Hare, at the beginning' How true! Ho hum.....still...6 to 7 miles of running...bloody good exercise. Even the girl behind the bar, said she always gets lost in the woods, ah but that could be deliberate eh? On On Guy ! Our Hare, is now hotfooting it to Australia, to escape the flak...tee hee.

1612 Simon @ The British Volunteer, Weybridge 17/03/2015

A cracking turnout tonight, on St.Patrick's Day, to be sure, to be sure. The foremost patron Saint of Ireland (AD 385 – 461) so there. Oft we jolly well....went into the woods, torches blazing, on a slightly chilly night. Our run was accompanied by water most of the Wey, ha ha and the river seemed to follow us everywhere we went, and we even had the pleasure of going past Coxes Lock.....careful....built in 1653, and the deepest Lock on the river Wey. Visitor's tonight were Belinda and her friend Angela, great to see you, and our UK resident Aussie from Sydney 'Is It Safe' who did not make it into the pub. Plus lovely to see Knickers, aka Ali who joined us tonight, yippee! Andrew back from South Africa, and Wasser and Tosser too, just from the UK. Our rewards, for our jaunt were umpteen bowls of chips, however did we deserve this? Maybe Simon is up to something,nah, just kindness. See you next week, in Teddington, better be good. On On...

1613 Wasser @ The Adelaide, Teddington 24/03/2015

A nice big turnout tonight for all our runners, little did they know what was in store for them! It all started so innocently for them. Our Hare Wasser grandly informed us at the off, this was an Elite Hash Runmmmmm so there. What we thought traditionally was a short road run towards the glorious green of Bushy Park, was nothing of the sort. We huffed and puffed eagerly round the little streets, and flour became more and more scarce, we wonderer if he actually had any at all? Then.....it happened for ages there was no flour anywhere, and Wasser told us He had lost the trail and we were walking toward The Popes Grotto pub, and then we told him.....Ferry road, Teddington, by the river is in the OPPOSITE direction. Oft we jolly well went, and lo and behold a speck of flour was seen! There was a check of flour inside Bushy Park, but no flour thereafter.....hmmmmm.

Our Weybridge Hashers, had merriment on their mischievous minds. Spanish Mistress said.....This was an Elite Run for Novice Hares! Dingaling said.....This was the Run that never was....Alice in Wonderland...a fantasy. Worzel who had to break into his car to get his own keys back, said....Shouldn't there be an age limit for setting a Hash? Tosser said....Why don't we get Nigel to give Wasser a bag of flour and a map, and Great Bear astonished by that, said 'I can't believe you just said that!! However, the chaotic night that ensued, with people making up their own way back provided much fun in the pub, and isn't that what it is all about. Don't miss Albury next Tuesday will be bootiful, and maybe with some flour too !

A beautiful location for a run, out in the Surrey Hills, no need to explain further, with a 16th century pub to boot, and outside loos! What more could you want? Even Kerry told us her luminescent smile lit up the hillside.. or has she just got big teeth? Tee heex A cornucopia of forested hillsides that took us up, up and up! We even ran past a trout farm, and many horses too. A blue starlit sky, with huge billowing white clouds, was a treat and our now, experienced Hares gave us lashings of flour, marked through checks and a guided tour of The Albury Estate. These well renowned Fly Fishing lakes were created here in the late 1970's and now you can catch rainbow trout and brown's here in one of three delightful forest locations. I am afraid we just rolled up to the pub, hungry for chips, which had been left kindly for us by the chefs who leave at 9pm. A selection of quality Surrey Hills beers were on offer too, like Shere Drop. So a tranquil setting for a satisfied pack of runners. Bliss was had by all, except Pig Pen who had a pint of beer dropped on him by Len, and our Hares awarded 5 stars for intelligence! On On for more of the same. You would not want to miss it.

Marathon Madness

Hi Fellow Hashers!

I'm going to be running in this year's London Marathon in April in support of the British Heart Foundation. This is my first attempt at a marathon and a lot longer than the average hash, however, so far the training is going well and I'm up to 18 miles on the long run and am about to attempt 20.

I'd greatly appreciate your support in getting me through this challenge with any donation you feel able to give. I've provided a link to my Just Giving page below and as my employer will match all donations (up to £1500) this is a great opportunity to raise money for a really worthy cause. I appreciate any support you're able to provide!

Thank you so much!

OnOn!
